

MINORITY CONTRACTING REFORM

WHAT IS IT:

Provides necessary reforms to ensure that African American owned businesses receive their fair share of state government contracts and revenue associated with said contracts.

POLICY:

The legislation establishes:

- a goal of 40% of state contracts and associated revenue be awarded to minority owned businesses
- a goal of 20% of all state contracts and associated revenue be awarded to Black and/or African American owned businesses
- Reforms to the good faith waiver provision and establishes a claw back for failing to meet contracting goals

CURRENT STATUS:

The bill has been filed in the IL House by Representative Will Davis. The bill number is HB 2629
