

THE SAFER COMMUNITIES & SMALL BUSINESS ACT

Supporting Small Businesses and Formerly Incarcerated Citizens

Illinois businesses are struggling to hire qualified employees, impacting their operations and recovery from the pandemic. The unemployment rate among formerly incarcerated individuals is extremely high. This undermines public safety and contributes to high recidivism rates.

This legislation will support small businesses struggling to hire employees, foster opportunities for formerly incarcerated individuals, improve public safety, and reduce the costs of incarceration. This initiative will provide wage subsidies to businesses that hire formerly incarcerated individuals and increased tax incentives to small businesses that hire returning citizens.

The goal is to pass this legislation during this fall session.

WHAT WILL HB 3215 DO?

TAX INCENTIVES FOR SMALL BUSINESSES

TAX INCENTIVES FOR SMALL BUSINESSES

HB 3215 would create tax incentives for small businesses that hire and provide on-the-job job training to formerly incarcerated citizens.

WAGE SUBSIDIES

HB 3215 creates wage subsidies for businesses that hire formerly incarcerated individuals to facilitate the entry of returning citizens back into the workforce.

IMPROVE ILLINOIS ECONOMY

ILLINOIS ECONOMY

Not only will HB 3215 support small businesses and formerly incarcerated individuals, but it will also save significant money in reduced reincarceration costs and increase revenue for the state through the income and sales taxes paid by returning citizens.

PUBLIC SAFETY

When individuals returning from incarceration become stably employed, their risk of recidivism drops by 62%. HB 3215 can reduce crime and improve public safety.

Encourage Illinois politicians to support small businesses and formerly incarcerated individuals, while improving our economy, by championing HB 3215!
