Open seven days a week on the patio

Porky's Pizza Palace — Porky's Pizza Palace celebrated its one-year anniversary in Pleasanton with a tribute event in March, including large cheese pizzas for $1 as well as specialty cocktails and drink specials. Today, Porky's Pizza Palace in Pleasanton is a favorite spot among many Tri-Valley citizens, and those who are pizza lovers from all over the East Bay. Porky's was first founded in 1963 by the Marrone family, becoming a premier spot in the Washington Manor area of San Leandro. Porky's was purchased in 1983, by the elder Valenziano family, upon moving from Illinois. Porky's Pizza Pleasanton opened its patio for outdoor dining on June 19, and is following all health and safety requirements. Opening at 10:45 a.m. every day, visit Porky's at 2911 Hopyard Road in Pleasanton.

Financial support, resources for military personnel and veterans

Valley Veterans Foundation — Valley Veterans Foundation celebrated a check presentation with a ribbon cutting ceremony. Valley Veterans Foundation is a non-profit 501(c)3 organization providing financial support and resources for military personnel and veterans pursuing post-secondary education. Valley Veterans Foundation was incorporated in 2007 when community members realized there was a lack of information and assistance for veterans to acquire needed resources for successfully transitioning back into civilian life. VVF scholarships and activities are designed to help Tri-Valley veterans embark upon career paths with training, skills and resources necessary to become personally and professionally successful members of their communities.
