Veterans – giving back to those who have sustained her son in the military. Her children are her life and what she does reflects on them as men with a heart for serving others.

With a give-back attitude, Olivia serves as the Public Relations and Fundraising Coordinator for Women Achieving Success (WAS), a non-profit advocating for women who were once emotionally and physically disrespected. She is compelled to help others overcome their emotional scars and reclaim their dignity.

Proud to be an Ambassador with the Pleasanton Chamber of Commerce, Olivia, again, offers her time to help others – in this case, the business community in Pleasanton.

Olivia, in her spare time, enjoys the creative peace that both crafting, and blanket-making brings. She is a staunch believer in the Christian faith, and enjoys an endless variety of music: Christian, Country, 80's and Alternative Rock. Ms. Borges is also a Notary Public.
