Porky's Pizza Palace — Porky's Pizza Palace celebrated its one-year anniversary in Pleasanton with a tribute event in March, including large cheese pizzas for $1 as well as specialty cocktails and drink specials. Today, Porky's Pizza Palace in Pleasanton is a favorite spot among many Tri-Valley citizens, and those who are pizza lovers from all over the East Bay. Porky's was first founded in 1963 by the Marrone family, becoming a premier spot in the Washington Manor area of San Leandro. Porky's was purchased in 1983, by the elder Valenziano family, upon moving from Illinois. Porky's Pizza Pleasanton opened its patio for outdoor dining on June 19, and is following all health and safety requirements. Opening at 10:45 a.m. every day, visit Porky's at 2911 Hopyard Road in Pleasanton.
