Long life and happiness through Kajukanbo at Kokua Martial Arts

Today, Kajukanbo is practiced all over the world in many different branches. Kajukanbo is a hybrid martial art that combines Western Boxing, Judo, Ju Jitsu, Kenpo Karate, Eskrima, Tang Soo Do, and Kung Fu. Here in Pleasanton, Kokua Martial Arts Fitness Academy has a Kajukanbo program that focuses on developing complete martial artists. In contrast to many traditional martial arts, students are not required to mimic the teacher, but are encouraged to develop their own “expression” of the art.

“Our emphasis is on consistent and hard training both mentally and physically,” said Sigung Esther, co-founder and the head instructor of the Kokua Martial Arts Fitness Academy. The Academy educates its students in the Emperor method of Kajukanbo, also known as the original or traditional method. Kajukanbo uses hard, fast strikes to vital points throughout the body, take-downs involving high impact throws, and many joint and limb destruction techniques.

Kokua Martial Arts Philosophy
- Treat people as we would like to be treated, with honor and respect.
- Welcome martial artists into our Academy which we consider our home and make them feel like Ohana (Family).
- Understand that Martial Arts encompasses your Spirit, Mind, and Body, which is the meaning of the clover in the Kajukanbo seal, which represents Sijo Emperado.
- Sigung Esther has many years of exceptional training and extreme competition with great accomplishments. She started her training while in college in the late 1970’s in TaeKwonDo then found the art of Kajukanbo in the early 2000’s. She is a member of the United Kajukanbo Federation and the Kajukanbo Self-Defense Institute.
- Her passion for the Martial Arts and her constant development and evolution of the curriculum has produced exceptional instructors and students, Grand Champions, World Champions, and responsible young adults in the community. Having been brought up with the Aloha Spirit, family is very important to her and can be felt throughout all aspects of the Academy. Her son, Sibak Matthew Kaiser, is an accomplished Second-Degree Black Belt in Kajukanbo and her husband is always there supporting her.
