

Business Connection

www.pleasanton.org

Catalyst • Convener • Champion

November 2021

Fresh Cut Christmas Trees

Premium quality without the premium price

Fresh Cut Trees is a small family farm operating in the foothills of Oregon's Cascade Mountains. The Hepler Family is pleased to introduce its new retail lot in Pleasanton, located at 4501 Pleasanton Avenue. The family also ran the tree lot in 2020 and they are very familiar with the location. It is set to open November 24, 2021.

Michael Hepler, who owns F.C. Trees with his wife Wanda and son Cody, has been in the business since he was 15 years old. At a young age, he started shearing Christmas trees and has been in the business ever since. In 2006, he went out on his own and started a farm labor contractor's business where he specialized in culturing and harvesting Christmas trees for other growers.

In 2007, the Heplers decided to take the business to a new level and started planting trees of their own and selling wholesale while meeting some incredible people along the way. Cody, who is now 17, started helping with the family business when he began walking and was packing 6-7' trees when he was six years old.

(continued on page 7)

Trees

(continued from page 1)

"We would love for you to come meet our family," said Wanda Hepler. "All of us will be on the lot the first weekend in December," she said.

F.C. Trees specializes in growing premium quality, fresh cut Christmas trees and building long term relationships with their clients. Their goal is to develop trust and confidence with independent retailers and non-profit organizations whose needs require consistent quality fresh cut Christmas trees and wreaths year after year. They also pride themselves in working closely with adult and teen challenge to staff their tree lot when available.

At the Pleasanton Tree Lot, they'll have freshly harvested Christmas trees ranging from sizes of 2' to 15' as well as wreaths, garland, and flocked trees, which are new this year. Delivery available upon request.

The Hepler Family encourages everyone to visit their Pleasanton tree lot and take a first-hand look at the quality of trees they produce. If you are interested in a farm tour or would like additional information, contact them via their website www.fctrees.com or on Facebook: Fresh Cut Christmas Trees. The Tree Lot phone number is 971-322-8501.

Michael Hepler, who owns Fresh Cut Christmas Trees with his wife Wanda and son Cody, has been in the business since he was 15 years old. Their goal is to develop trust and confidence with independent retailers and non-profit organizations.