Business Spotlight

Made with love, simply delicious

One of downtown Pleasanton's newest gems of a restaurant is Elia, featuring refined modern Greek cuisine and a wine list that has grown to more than 200 bottles from all over the world.

"This has been one of the greatest journeys I've had," said Refet Tugay, General Manager of Elia Pleasanton. "It's been great meeting everyone in the community and so far, it's been fantastic."

When Elia first opened up, Tugay recalls everyone telling him, "This is Pleasanton, you've got to have chardonnays and cabs." Well, he wanted to break that reputation, and so far, it's been working well. "We started with a very small wine list, but we've slowly extended it." He says his personal goal is to offer not just wines you can find anywhere, but truly unique wines. "I'd highly recommend the Greek wines, they're phenomenal," he said.

Elia is open for dinner on Mondays, lunch and dinner

Tuesday-Friday. On the weekends, they also offer brunch beginning at 10:00 a.m. with bottomless mimosas and homemade white and red sangria.

With one of the largest patios in the area, Elia features 60+ outdoor seats with a gorgeous fireplace overlooking Main Street. Elia is located at 310-A Main Street in downtown Pleasanton. Learn more at eliapleasanton.com.

Open seven days a week in the heart of downtown Pleasanton on Main Street, Elia brings your taste of authentic Greek food to reality.

Elia features refined modern Greek cuisine.
