Helping families build lasting legacies

Accardo Financial & Insurance Services — Accardo Financial & Insurance Services celebrated the grand opening of its Pleasanton headquarters. Ever since the formation of Accardo Financial & Insurance Services in 2008, we've had a singular focus on one-on-one client relationships. Like family, we want to be there by your side through the triumphs and tribulations because that's what my family has always done. In developing your customized financial strategy, we walk you through our four clear steps. We are passionate about helping families build lasting legacies. After all, that is the genesis of our company. Offering impeccable service that turns clients into friends and makes friends feel like family. Learn more online at www.accardofinancial.com or visit them at 325 Ray Street in Pleasanton.
