

Business Connection

www.pleasanton.org

Catalyst • Convener • Champion

November 2023

Business Spotlight

The craft dishes at Northern Curry encapsulate the essence of India's diverse regions, and their vegetarian and non-vegetarian menu is a testament to India's culinary heritage.

Authentic North Indian Cuisine

Introducing Northern Curry, a new Indian restaurant in Pleasanton that will take you on a culinary journey and transport your taste buds to the heart of India. The restaurant is a celebration of the rich tapestry of flavors, spices, and traditions that India has to offer.

Their craft dishes encapsulate the essence of India's diverse regions, and their vegetarian and non-vegetarian menu is a testament to India's culinary heritage. Whether you're a fan of chaats, biryanis, soft and creamy butter chicken, or vegetarian delights, Northern Curry has something to please every palate.

Northern Curry is a haven for connoisseurs of authentic Indian cuisine. A great dining experience is more than just the taste; it's the sights, sounds, smells, and everything else that goes into making your visit memorable. Experience comfortable and enjoyable family dining at Northern Curry's Pleasanton location at 4000 Pimlico Drive, Unit 106. Offering dine-in, take-out and catering options. Open Tuesday through Sunday. Call 925-425-7292 or visit northerncurry.com.

Northern Curry's Pleasanton location is at 4000 Pimlico Drive, Unit 106, near Santa Rita Road and Interstate 580.

The menu features chaats, biryanis, soft and creamy butter chicken, or vegetarian delights.