Surrounded by the region's finest wineries, in both the Willamette Valley and Umpqua Valley, Cottage Grove is the central location for the best tastes in Oregon.

Cottage Grove area wineries range from one of the largest vineyards and wineries in the state, to smaller boutique wineries specializing in hand-crafted artisan wines.

Willamette Valley wineries defeated many of the finest French burgundies in blind tastings during the late 1970s, which gave world-wide recognition to the valley's Pinot Noir.

While the Willamette's Pinot Noir and Pinot Gris are top-notch wines similar to those from Burgundy, France, the Umpqua Valley is similar to Bordeaux, France, and produces top-notch Cabernet, Merlot and Red blends.

The draw of these local wineries when combined with Cottage Grove's great shops and restaurants, historic character, bicycle trails, covered bridges, and wilderness recreation opportunities, makes Cottage Grove a "must visit" destination.
