

NAIOP Awards Gala SoCal 2022

Ed Roski to be Inducted into NAIOP SoCal Hall of Fame Industry Awards Program, Gala to be Held on May 12 in Anaheim

Santa Ana, CA (February 23, 2022) -- NAIOP SoCal, the leading voice for commercial real estate in Southern California, announced that Ed Roski will be the first inductee into its Hall of Fame during its May 12, 2022 Awards Gala. Roski is president and chairman of the board of Majestic Realty Co., one of the nation's largest privately-held development firms.

Founded in 1948, Majestic Realty has a portfolio of more than 82 million square feet of office, retail, hospitality and warehouse/logistics distribution facilities with offices across the United States. Recognized by his peers for his real estate success, Roski is a visionary who co-developed the Staples Center (now Crypto.com Arena), a landmark that transformed downtown Los Angeles. Roski's impact on our region extends well beyond his real estate success. He is a true leader, serving on numerous civic and philanthropic boards, personally committing his time and resources throughout the basin.

"What a great way to kick off our first-ever awards program celebrating the best of the commercial real estate industry. Ed Roski is an icon in our industry setting a high bar by instilling in people to work hard, bring our best self each day and remember to help others along the way. During our gala we will recognize the best of the industry and I can't wait to see the projects and people who are recognized for their success," said Greg May, board president, NAIOP SoCal and executive vice president, west region market leader, Newmark.

On May 12, NAIOP SoCal will also announce the winners of its first annual industry awards across a broad spectrum of categories including: Developer of the Year, Broker of the Year, Deal of the Year, Service Provider of the Year, Multifamily Project of the Year, Industrial Project of the Year, Office Project of the Year, Retail Project of the Year, Interior Project of the Year, Mixed-Use Project of the Year, Redevelopment/Renovation of the Year, Sustainable Project of the Year, Investor of the Year, Developing Leader of the Year, Diversity and Inclusion Award and Community Impact Project of the Year.

Two of the awards will be decided during the gala by a people's choice, including Developer of the Year and Deal of the Year.

In addition to the nominated awards there are a number that will be chosen by NAIOP SoCal leadership and announced that night including Distinguished Service, Member of the Year, Public Partner of the Year and YPG's John B. Parker award.

Nominations are due by March 9. The event will be held at the Westin Anaheim on May 12. For more information and to submit a nomination go to <https://www.naiopsocal.org/awardsgala>. For all nominations, at least one member of the team must be a NAIOP member.
