

NAIOP Awards Gala SoCal 2023

Industry Leaders Honored at NAIOP SoCal Annual Awards Gala; Lew Horne of CBRE Inducted into NAIOP SoCal Hall of Fame

Los Angeles, CA (May 17, 2023) – On May 11, the best of the best in commercial real estate was honored by NAIOP SoCal, the leading voice for commercial real estate in Southern California, during its Annual Awards Gala. Nearly 300 people attended the Gala which was held at the historic Vibiana in downtown Los Angeles.

The event, covering 20 unique categories, included two People's Choice Awards voted on that evening for Developer of the Year, won by Bridge Industrial, and Deal of the Year, won by JLL.

The chapter also recognized individuals who have provided outstanding service to the chapter as well as expectational young leaders. The Distinguished Service award was given to Jim Camp of Rockefeller Group. The NAIOP SoCal Member of the Year was awarded to two members, Andy Bratt of Gantry and Emily Mandrup of ECM Management. The Developing Leader of the Year was Richard Sung of Newmark.

NAIOP SoCal also inducted Lew Horne, President of the Greater Los Angeles, Orange County, and Inland Empire regions for CBRE, into its Hall of Fame. As a leader in the Los Angeles community, Horne regularly lends his voice, experience, and time to help create meaningful solutions for business and social issues, including the complex challenges regarding the city's homelessness crisis. He is both passionate and compassionate when it comes to reducing homelessness and is an advocate for the affordable housing community in Los Angeles.

"What an amazing night. The opportunity to bring together the best of the industry as well as honor the next generation of leaders was truly inspiring. Everyone's enthusiasm was apparent that night and I congratulate all our awardees and finalists," said Tim Jemal, CEO, NAIOP SoCal. "I also want to thank our exceptional Host, KTLA 5 reporter Ellina Abovian, whose experience and skill added to the electric environment. We intend to hold this Awards Gala in LA from now on. Thank you to our sponsors who helped make the night possible."
