Three CRE Industry Bouts Announced for the Event of the Year NAIOP SoCal's Night at the Fights Southern California, CA (August 15, 2023)

For the first time in NAIOP SoCal Night at the Fight's history, six professionals from the commercial real estate industry will take their place in the ring during three industry bouts. One of the most anticipated commercial real estate events of the year, Night at the Fights will be held September 21 at the OC Fair & Event Center, Hangar Building in Costa Mesa. More than 1,000 commercial real estate professionals are expected to attend this premier black-tie gala.

The three industry bouts include a lightweight match between Kevin Lao of CenterPoint Properties, and Trevor Hanson of Triten Real Estate Partners; a middleweight match between David Sarnoff of PSRS, and Sam Overton of Capital One; and a heavyweight match between Justin Brown Nuhome Team Mortgage Lending, and Chris Martinez of Pivot Interiors. The evening will also include one professional boxing match.

"Each year we reach out to the commercial real estate industry to invite Southern California amateurs to step into the ring. Now we have six industry pros who are training hard before their battles. These bouts bring a whole new level of excitement to the night which is why we expect to sell out again this year," said Tim Jemal, CEO, NAIOP SoCal.

"Our entire committee and the NAIOP SoCal team are working hard to make this another night to remember. It's no wonder that each year, this event is the one that everyone looks forward to attending. We appreciate the support of our sponsors who help make it all possible" said Brian Baker, Chair, Night at the Fights, and executive director with JP Morgan.

Night at the Fights begins at 5:30 pm. Tickets and event information at <https://www.naiopsocal.org/night-at-the-fights-registration/>
