Bring History to Life

“Winnepesaukee” is a native Indian name that means “Smile of the Great Spirit.” Our Lakes Region was important in Native American cultures as well as to early settlers during America’s Colonial period. History abounds in this area, and our museums and historical societies have wonderful collections documenting this rich past.

BELKNAP MILL SOCIETY, downtown Laconia. Open year round.

CENTER HARBOR HISTORICAL SOCIETY, Rt. 25B, Center Harbor. Open Saturdays in Summer

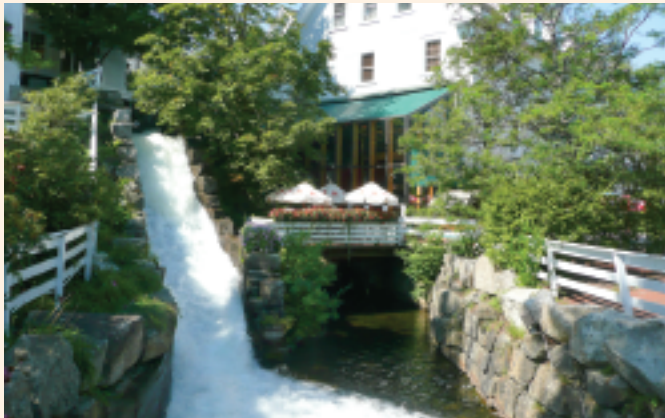

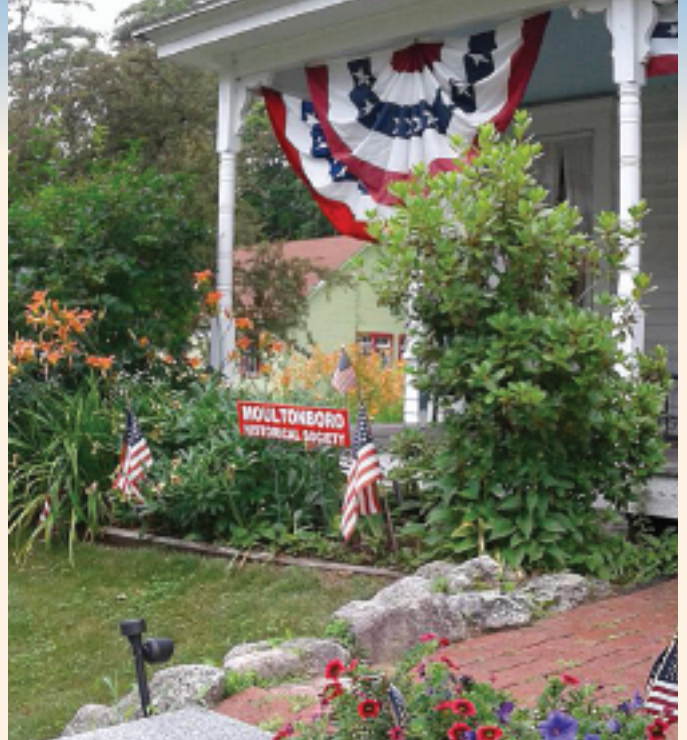

LAKE WINNIPESAUKEE HISTORICAL SOCIETY, Route 3, Weirs Beach. Open year round.

THOMPSON-AMES HISTORICAL SOCIETY, Gilford

In the 1800s Meredith was a prosperous mill town. The natural strong water flow from Lake Waukegan to Lake Winnepesaukee had been harnessed into an underground canal as a power source for the mills. Amazingly, this 40 foot waterfall was enclosed within a linen mill until the 1980s. Visionaries set out to preserve the charm and showcase the industrial history of Meredith, rehabilitating the deteriorating mill and uncovering the waterfall as a centerpiece to what is now Mill Falls Marketplace. The complex features unique shops, distinctive dining, brick walkways, flower gardens, lake views, special events and nearby lodging. The waterfall has become a landmark, where visitors watch the cascading waters flow down toward Lake Winnepesaukee at Hesky Park.

“Archie,” a special installation in the Greater Meredith Sculpture Walk, was designed and created in bronze by sculptor Valery Mahuchy.
