

Performing arts

These jobs are about entertainment. Some people work as performers. They talk, sing, dance, act or play music. Others work behind the scenes to make the performance happen. No exam level jobs...

DJ

DJs choose and play recorded music. There are several different types of DJ. Mobile DJs are usually hired to play music at parties and weddings. Some DJs work in clubs and others work on the radio.

Dancer

Dancers use movement to entertain people, to show feelings or to tell a story. They may dance in live performances, on television or in films.

Stunt Performer

Stunt performers take the place of film and TV actors during risky scenes, or in those that need certain skills. They have a wide range of skills and are highly trained so they can do dangerous things safely.
