Full participation by each member of Leadership Lamar County is critical. Listed below are the attendance requirements expected.

- Participants are required to attend all full day class sessions. Only four (4) hours may be missed without penalty or make-up. Absences exceeding four (4) hours must be made up in a manner established and approved by the Board in order to graduate.
- Full Attendance at the Fall Retreat and the Leadership Trip in the spring is mandatory.
- Failure to adhere to the above requirements will result in the program participant not graduating with his/her class. The participant may be given the opportunity to come back the following year to fulfill any of the requirements missed and graduate in the spring with that class. All expenses for the makeup sessions will be incurred by the participant.
- Any participant whose absences exceed the above allowances may be asked to withdraw from the program without any portion of the tuition being refunded.
- Participants are expected to attend monthly sessions in their entirety and perform their assignments per Leadership Lamar policies. Participants must notify the Program Chairs if they will need to miss part of a day or will need to leave early. Any missed time will be made up by the participant as assigned by the Board of Directors.
- The Board of Directors reserves the right to adjust the above policies for extenuating circumstances.

This policy will be strictly enforced. Tuition will not be reimbursed for any reason. These commitments must be met in order to graduate. If a class or event date must be rescheduled, a minimum of a 90 day notice will be given.

When necessary to travel to a Leadership Sponsored event, you will be required to travel in the transportation provided by Leadership Lamar County.

Out of respect for our speakers and in order to avoid class disruption, each member also agrees to arrive on time to all program events. Furthermore, the usage of mobile devices during any event is strictly prohibited. Breaks during class will be scheduled to allow participant to check phone messages and/or emails.

It is important that you and your employer understand and honor these commitments. If you are unable to commit to this schedule and these policies, please do not apply at this time.
