how Paris got its name

The first recorded settlement in the vicinity of Paris was in 1826, and settlements were known to be in the area as early as 1824.

Paris is the third county seat of Lamar County.

Before 1843, the county seat of Lamar County was northwest of the present location of the city of Paris, at a place called Lafayette, which was chosen for its position as close to the geographical center of the county as possible. But in those days the counties of Texas were still in flux and in '43 the county's borders were readjusted and the county seat moved to another location. The new seat of county government was called Mount Vernon and business was done from a tavern at that location, about half a mile west of what is now Highway 24, about five miles south of Paris. It would remain the county seat for about a year.

In 1839, George W. Wright, one of the first permanent settlers in the area, brought his family from their previous home on the banks of the Red River to the high ground between the courses of the Red and the Sulphur rivers. The Wrights settled on 1,000 acres, purchased for $2,500 from Larkin Rattan.

An aerial shot of downtown Paris.

In 1844, Wright pledged 50 acres for the creation of a new county seat. How the new county seat became known as Paris is open to conjecture, but most historical records say a committee was appointed to choose a new name, one more suited to the importance of a center of government.

One source relates the decision on the name was made by a group of men meeting at George Wright's store, conversing on the topics of the day. But other sources, such as the Handbook of Texas, place the suggestion of the new name as coming from one of Wright's employees, Thomas Poteet. Members of the present-day Poteet family affirm that version, saying that the Poteet family had spent some time in France before coming to Northeast Texas, and the young man in question must have had warm memories of his time spent in the French capitol.

On his web site Bobby Wayne Smith, a fourth generation descendant of T.R.H. Poteet, writes "Our great pioneer ancestor, T.R.H. Poteet, was the first of the Poteet Clan to come to Texas, from Tennessee, and was given much of the credit for naming Paris, Texas." Another web site, supported by the Lamar County Genealogical Society, agrees: "When the hassle over the location of a county seat was settled by George Wright's donation of 50 acres in the northwest corner of his property, T.H.R. Poteet — with support by Dr. William T. F. Cole — suggested the new town be called 'Paris.'" The Lamar County Historical Society backs up this account.

A.W. Neville, long-time editor of the newspaper that would eventually become The Paris News, wrote in a column dated January 15, 1931: T.H.R. Poteet was a Frenchman who was employed by George Wright and who is said to have suggested the name of Paris for the new county seat of Lamar County when Mr. Wright gave the land for the town."

In "Backward Glances, Volume II" a collection of the elder Neville's columns, edited by Paris historian and author Skipper Steely, Neville's daughter, Maude, herself a longtime journalist in Paris, is noted as saying Poteet came from eastern Tennessee and was possibly born in Virginia but was apparently of French descent.

Paris, Texas, was officially named and incorporated by the Republic of Texas on Feb. 3, 1845. Pin Hook was forgotten and the location of that settlement was eventually absorbed by the city as it spread out. Paris became a major stop for the Central National Road, established by the Texas Congress in 1844 for the movement of goods and merchandise across North Texas.

On Feb. 19, 1846, Texas was formally annexed by the United States, and Paris, Texas, became an American town. The Paris post office was founded in 1846.

Thomas R.H. Poteet lived the rest of his life in Lamar County, serving for many years as county treasurer. He is buried in Antioch Cemetery northeast of the Bairdstown community southeast of Paris.

Today there are more than a dozen towns called Paris in the United States alone. There are two towns in Wisconsin named Paris, one in Grant County, the other in Kenosha County. Other states with their own Paris — or some variation of the name — include Indiana, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Arkansas, Idaho, Illinois, Maine, Michigan, Missouri, New York, Tennessee and Virginia. The Canadian provinces of Ontario and Yukon each have a Paris, and the island of Kiribati, in the Gilbert Islands in the middle of the Pacific Ocean, has its own Paris.

Paris, Texas, the second largest Paris in the world, has an Eiffel Tower topped with a Red Cowboy Hat. As T.R.H. Poteet might have said: "C'est la vie."

Roar on the water

The waters at Lake Crook, just north of Paris are the site of three days of the Southern Drag Boat Association's high-speed boat races.

The races are a quarter-mile, just like car drag races, except on water where boats can reach up to 200 miles per hour. The races are family-oriented, with crafts ranging from larger boats with fighter pilot-like capsules to smaller personal crafts.

Spectators bring lawn chairs and blankets, along with hats and sunblock. Concessions are available, as well as children's activities.

Winners earn special made trophies along with cash prizes.

The anticipation of the Paris pump track became a reality in 2020. Through local community donations and multiple partnerships, Paris is now the home of one the premier tracks in the world. This city park is open for all to enjoy and thanks should go out to the vision and hard work that went into getting this here.

Since its inception, the hope for the Paris Pump Track was that it would be host to some of the biggest cycling events in the country.

Though this is the result of years of planning, construction on the track began earlier this year. There is still some work left to complete the project, but the majority of the construction has been done.

Work to bring the pump track to Paris has been spearheaded by Casey Ressler, a real estate agent with Century 21 and a member of the Chamber of Commerce.

In November 2020, Paris City Council approved a $451,692 contract with American Ramp, the parent company of Velosolutions, the group that worked with Hayter Engineering of Paris on the track and its landscape design.

Funding for the $680,000 facility comes with a 50/50 state match using federal funds. Texas Parks and Wildlife contributes $340,000, the city $100,000 from 2017 bond money, the Chamber's Visitors and Convention Council $50,000 and the rest from private funds and in-kind donations.

Paris' signature event

The Festival of Pumpkins brings thousands to downtown Paris in October for food, fun and things to buy.

Few things say fall like pumpkins, and Paris' Festival of Pumpkins is an annual fall event bringing more than 10,000 people year after year. The fourth Saturday in October, the festival fills downtown Paris from 2nd Street on the west to 2nd Street to the east and from Houston to Kaufman streets.

"The festival of Pumpkins is a fall staple around here," said Paris Main Street coordinator Cheri Bedford. "From 9-99, everyone in this community looks forward to it."

The all-day festival includes entertainment, art, contests, games and, of course, pumpkins.

"There's something for everybody," Cheri said.

The Downtown Pumpkin Patch opens for the day, and, through the work of volunteers allows youngsters to pick out pumpkins and decorate them for a small fee, with all proceeds benefitting the downtown Christmas decoration fund.

Festival-goers will also enjoy a day visiting vendors offering re-purposed art products including bags, totes, necklaces and chests, benches and coat racks made from old doors and lumber. Shaped soaps, clothing, hand-painted dolls and cook books are just a sampling of the items offered.

Children's activities include games such as fishing in the fountain, pumpkin bowling, and more. Other youngster-related fun includes pony rides and a petting zoo.

Children's art is typically featured, complete with sidewalk chalk.

Young at heart can also try their hand at bungee jumping and an obstacle course.

"It is always promising for a great fall Saturday," Bedford said.

take a ride through the countryside

ANNUAL EVENTS

Tour de Paris bicycle rally, known worldwide, brings bikers from all over for a ride through the countryside.

For 36 years, cyclists have come from near and far to ride in the annual Tour de Paris bicycle rally.

It was started by a Bicycle Club and was originally intended to be a competitive race. There were fewer stops on the route until the Chamber of Commerce took charge of the rally, making it less of a race, adding in more improved rest stops, and generating more public interest.

Tour de Paris started as a small bicycle rally. Today, it is a premiere event known worldwide, and it all happens, and has happened year after year, in Paris and Lamar County.

Every July, our streets fill with bicycles and people of all ages, and they roll over the hills and through the valleys of the area we call home. This rally creates opportunity for a unique view of the county and one both riders and locals look forward to.

Hundreds of riders register at Love Civic Center, and prepare for the start in front of Paris Junior High School, and Parisians take it as an opportunity to once again show our legendary welcome. This welcome is not a staged event where quickly gathered officials say "hello and have a good ride". It's the people from all walks of life who line the streets and roads to cheer and wave the riders throughout their treks that stand out in the memories of the day's rolling visitors. It's the businesses and industry who acknowledge on marquees their presence in our city.

It's the hundreds of volunteers who devote their time to offer refreshment, make sure the routes and riders are safe, provide a helping hand whenever and wherever it's needed.

Tour de Paris isn't just for the riders who come to Paris. We hope they also enjoy our restaurants and spend a little extra time before and after the rally to truly experience our community.

We want you to see why we call this place home.

And the band plays on

Paris Municipal Band

Formed in 1923, the Paris Municipal Band is recognized as the oldest such group in the state.

E.A. Lightfoot is believed to have organized the band, and the first rehearsal hall is believed to have been at 140 Grand Ave. The band was active throughout the year. During winter months, members carried buckets of coal up the stairs to heat the building during practice sessions.

The band's first appearance may have been a Sunday afternoon performance on the Grand Theater stage. It is known the band performed July 20, 1926, for the grand opening of the Plaza Theater.

Lightfoot was eventually replaced by Fritz Idelfeldt, who played a small cornet in one hand and directed with the other. By the late 1920s, Arthur Layton took the baton. The band won first place in the 1928 Convention Contest of the East Texas Chamber of Commerce at Greenville and three first place trophies in state competition.

In 1929, the city began levying a tax to support the band, and in 1930 uniforms were issued to members for the first time.

O.M. Barnett replaced Layton and conducted the band until the start of World War II, when George "Slick" Howard took the baton. Howard conducted until 1949, when Floyd Weger became the director.

Weger, a high school and municipal band legend in Paris and throughout the state, kept the band going when municipal bands were disappearing from many cities. He was the conductor until Tom Neugent, a retired high school band teacher with multiple wins in competitions across the state, took the baton in 2001.

Today the band is under the direction of Joe Watson, a former high school band director and now technology teacher at Paris Junior High.

The band's six -week long concert season runs from mid-June through July held at Bywaters Park. The July 4th Celebration concert is held at Noyes Stadium on the PJC Campus.

In inclement weather, outdoor concerts are at the Love Civic Center pavilion.

be sure to visit the Eiffel Tower

However Paris got its name, residents have used this famous designation to their advantage.

Following the loss of a much smaller tower of wood, which sat on the Paris Junior College campus, a new tower was designed, built and erected by various members of the community.

The current tower was built by members of the Boilermakers Local 902 who worked at Babcock & Wilcox and donated their time. The company donated much of the materials used. The tower is bolted into 10 feet by 10-inch pads to ensure it would not be blown away like the previous tower. In all, 78 individuals spent approximately 1,000 hours to construct the tower.

The current Eiffel Tower, located at the Love Civic Center, was unveiled in July 1996 and was 65 feet tall.

The Eiffel tower in Paris, Texas, was long billed as the “Second Largest Eiffel Tower in the Second Largest Paris in the World.” That is, until another Paris — in Tennessee — raised their tower an additional 10 feet high in order to claim that slogan. That’s where the red cowboy hat comes in.

The hat was designed and created by the late Daon Wall. Once again, community members donated time, funds, materials and more. It is 4 1/2 feet high and sports a 10-foot-wide brim. Dr. Don Riddle, a long time veterinarian in Paris, tooled a brass feather that was placed on the Cowboy hat before installation. You have to get the right angle to see the feather which is tarnished from time and weather, but it is something we like to give credit for. The hat was placed atop the tower in October 1998.

The Paris, Texas, tower was once again taller than the Tennessee edifice, again the 2nd largest tower, until a 540-foot version of the tower was built in Las Vegas in 1999.

No other tower sports a bright, red cowboy hat, which has become a rally point for locals, visitors, weddings, reunions, conventions and more.

Left: The red hat was designed and fabricated by Daon Wall. It was placed atop the Eiffel tower in October 1998.

Right: The original wooden Eiffel tower was blown down by high winds, and was replaced by the tower that still stands today.

The Depot is an outstanding example of station architecture representative of those along the Frisco Railroad lines. ## Lamar County Historical Museum Varied collections are housed in a 7,000-square-foot building in Heritage Park. The foyer houses the 1917 Staples Jewelry neon sign and an extensive collection of Lamar County postcards dating from the early 1900s.

The restored facade of the home of the late Judge Jim Noble Thompson leads into the core of the museum, which has a military room with artifacts dating from the Texas Revolution to the recent war in the Gulf. Period uniforms, weapons and information on Camp Maxey (WWII) are displayed. The fire room deals exclusively with the great fire of 1916, which destroyed 70 percent of the city with a panorama of the city in 1914 just before the fire. There are rooms of period furniture from the Swaim family c. 1920. The Buckner collection includes the sole remaining artifacts from the Buckner Orphans Home in Dallas which originated in Paris in 1877. There is a restored Sunday School classroom, the baptistry painting and the doors and chandelier from the main chapel. In separate rooms are exhibits from one rural community rotating every three months and exhibits ranging from the Paris police department to the tornado of 1982.

The third section offers the rural life area, with a log house built by the Biard family in 1856, model kitchens, blacksmith shop, iron lung, medical equipment and exhibits on the hay and cotton industries. A curing vat for curing meats from the Wright plantation is present, as are artifacts from the five railroads that crisscrossed Paris in 1912. Numerous smaller exhibits are found throughout the building.

Vintage home

In the historical district of Paris, the Sam Bell Maxey House state historical site is a two-story frame home built in the High Victorian Italianate style. It was considered a proper home for the family of Sam Bell Maxey, the West Point-educated Mexican War veteran, Confederate general and two-term U.S. Senator.

Maxey and his wife, Marilda, raised their family and were host to many distinguished guests in this home, which was commonly regarded as a town social center.

Sam Bell Maxey Long, Maxey's great-nephew, and his wife, Lala, inherited the home in 1908 and lived there along with Sallie Lee Lightfoot, Maxey's granddaughter, until their deaths.

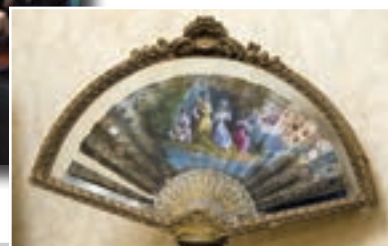

Family members lived continuously in the house for 99 years until 1967 when they donated the home to the city of Paris. In March 1971, the Sam Bell Maxey House was officially listed in the National Register of Historic Places and transferred to state ownership in 1976.

Today, the site explores the real stories of a prominent Texas family and how they cherished and modified their Victorian residence and grounds to reflect changing styles and trends in architecture, interior design and technology.

Visitors are guided through the home where they experience the family's daily life through original furnishings, clothing and photographs. The Sam Bell Maxey House has more than 10,000 artifacts in its extensive collection. The vast majority, once family owned, help interpret how an upper-middle class family lived in the late 19th and 20th centuries.

The holidays at Sam Bell Maxey House bring Victorian era fun and games.

Barber Hills

hiking & biking trail

Pat Mayse Lake's
best-kept secret

Story by The Paris News Staff

Though it's been there for several years, chances are good you've driven right past the Barber Hills Trail entrance at Pat Mayse Lake without ever noticing it. The trailhead, situated near the Sanders Cove gatehouse, is the gateway to 10 linked trails, which together make up 13.5 scenic miles of wooded hiking and mountain biking opportunities.

The trails weave in and out of trees alongside Pat Mayse Lake and follows the edge of Sanders Cove Park Road and FM 906. Each leg of the trail offers a different difficulty level, which is marked along the trail, as well as on the maps that are available at the gatehouse. Beginners, as well as more experienced riders, can find the trail that works best for them.

Helping to maintain the trail is Bryan Hargis, who said the trail is open all the time, except from 10 p.m. to 6 a.m. or when it's deemed too muddy to ride. Hargis said he posts the trail status online to ensure people know when the trail is closed for any reason.

"You can look at the trail status at dorba.org and look up Barber Hills and it'll tell you if it's open or closed," Hargis said.

In recognition of Clint Barber's countless hours devoted to making the trails what they have become, Hargis said they dubbed the trails Barber Hills. Completely maintained by volunteers, Hargis said the trail was originally completed with the help of Barber and a few of his friends.

Hargis and his group have placed trail markers to help guide people through the trails.

"Barber got with the Corps of Engineers and they approved him building the trail," Hargis said. "It was built a little at a time and it's completely taken care of and maintained by volunteers who ride and hike out there. If a tree falls across the trail, or if something needs trimming, it's done strictly by volunteers."

Before the trails were cleared, Barber said they would drive for at least two hours, one-way, twice a month, to ride on a mountain bike trail. That spurred the group to begin talking with the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers, who told them they could utilize land not used for hunting near Sanders Cove.

After Barber gained permission to create the trails, he and a group of friends began building the trail around Christmas in 2005, a task that took three or four years to complete.

Continuously looking for volunteers to help with maintaining the trail, Hargis said if an organization, Boy Scout troop or an individual would like to help, they should email him at bryan@hargiselectric.com, or message him on the group's Facebook page, facebook.com/Barber-Hills-Trails.

Maps of the trail can be picked up at the Sanders Cove check-in station, or printed from Barber Hills Trails' Facebook page.

stroll along the Trail de Paris

Find serenity in the midst of a bustling city. The Northeast Texas Trail is a “Diamond in the Rough” in a region that rolls smack dab through the middle of Paris (Trail de Paris) and is being shaped into a shining destination for pedestrians, bicyclists and equestrians to enjoy “One Heck of a Trek” through the picturesque countryside of Northeast Texas. It travels 130 miles from Farmersville, east of Dallas, through 19 rural towns and seven counties to New Boston, west of Texarkana.

When completed, the Northeast Texas Trail will be the longest hike/bike and equestrian trail in Texas and the fifth longest in the U.S.A.

The Trail de Paris winds from 4th Street S.W. in Paris east through the City of Reno. The paved walking and biking path is enhanced with a canopy of trees for 10 linear miles.

Newcomers visitors and long-time residents of all ages find Trail de Paris a pleasant, safe place to run, walk or ride bicycles.

Markers indicate each quarter mile. Benches provide a place to enjoy the rustle of leaves, twittering birds and the freshness of honeysuckle in bloom.

Along the path is a butterfly garden between 24th Street S.E. and Collegiate Drive as well as a new space set aside for outdoor yoga.

Families find interactive signage helpful to enhance children’s outdoor experience.

There are four trailheads with parking areas. They are at 12th Street S.E., east and west of Collegiate Drive; north of the Sports Complex Outdoor Pavilion; Old Clarksville Road at the Boys and Girls Club Football Field; and 24th Street S.E. at the Paris Junior College Campus, with parking available at Noyes Stadium.

in honor of our veterans

In honor of our veterans, each Memorial Day and Veterans Day are set aside to pay tribute to those who put their lives on the line for our freedom. You will find all the service flags flying 24/7 365 days a year.

The Red River Valley Veterans Memorial is a place for reflection, remembrance and gratitude. It is our hope that this will also be a place to educate present and future generations of the sacrifice made by members of their own family and their community to secure the freedoms that we all enjoy. And may it be a reminder that "Freedom is not Free."

This impressive memorial is located next to the Eiffel Tower near Love Civic Center. The memorial's centerpiece is the Ring of Honor, an elevated ring of granite walls containing the names of all the men and women from the five county Red River Valley area that made the ultimate sacrifice. Surrounding the Ring of Honor are granite Conflict Walls, etched with information and graphic depictions of each war or conflict.

There are over 2,400 granite 1' x 2' pavers that honors all veterans no matter where they live. Also there are 48 Family Benches, 15 Ornamental Tree Pavers and 95 Specialty Pavers installed at the memorial.

Two bronze statues with murals have been installed to honor Gold Star Families and War Dogs and their Handlers.

We have a computer Kiosk that is used for visitors to fill out our Guestbook and used to find friend or family members that have their names engraved at the memorial.

We have begun construction on the last phase, that will include more Family Benches, Ornamental Tree Pavers, Veteran Pavers, Choctaw Code Talker Monument and static displays. In 2020 an AH1 P Cobra Attack Helicopter will be elevated above ground and an M115 8" Towed Howitzer from 1944 will be installed.

Davy rumor has it Crockett slept here

In 1835, famous frontiersman, soldier and politician Davy Crockett left his home in Tennessee with a few friends to explore Texas and take part in the coming revolution against Mexico.

He entered Texas at Jonesboro, in what is now Red River County and passed through the county seat of Clarksville on his way to more southerly communities and, eventually, San Antonio and his ill-fated meeting with the army of Gen. Santa Anna.

His route through northeast Texas seems to have wandered a bit, for several communities well-off the beaten path have traditions of his passage.

In Paris, the Daughters of the American Revolution in 1936, 100 years after the Siege of the Alamo, placed a marker in the 1900 block of Clarksville Street designating a site venerated in local tradition as the very place Crockett camped on his way to the Alamo.

The Clarksville Street property is currently owned by Grace Lutheran Church and the Davy Crockett marker is currently planted beside the deck off the back of the Paris Public Library on 1st S.W. Street across from Market Square.

John Chisum's resting place

John S. Chisum (1824-1884), a cattle baron whose herd, moving from east to west Texas and into New Mexico, expanded into one of the greatest cattle spreads in the west.

Chisum came to this area from Tennessee in 1837. His father, Claiborne Chisum, built the first home in 1830 in what became Paris. During the Civil War, Chisum supplied beef to Confederate troops west of the Mississippi and his cowboys guarded the frontier against Indians. His enormous herd 60,000 to 80,000 head pounded trails across Texas into New Mexico. His name and fame led to confusion with Jesse Chisholm, blazer of the historic Oklahoma-to-Kansas cattle trail.

John Chisum was a partner of famous cattleman Charles Goodnight who once said of Chisum that he could correctly tally three grades of moving cattle at once. Chisum's distinctive "long rail" brand and "jinglebob" ear-notch defied alteration. A disastrous packing house deal and involvement in the 1876 "Lincoln County War" in which Billy the Kid and various cattle factions figured, ultimately led to Chisum's financial ruin. The Lamar County Historical Society owns the cemetery property. Texas State Historical Marker.

The 1970 film, Chisum, starred John Wayne.

His monument is at 1120 W. Washington St.

Evergreen Cemetery,

home of “Jesus” in cowboy boots and a life-sized buffalo statue

Evergreen Cemetery is noted for its size and for the many unusual and ornate monuments.

The cemetery was first used September 26th, 1866, when Mrs. Rice Maxey was interred. Several people who had died in previous years were moved to family plots in Evergreen from the old City Cemetery.

Among the many other citizens interred here are such notables as Sam Bell Maxey, Willet Babcock (whose marker is noted for its unusual figure in cowboy boots), and J.J. Culbertson who was laid to rest in the family mausoleum. There are several historical markers in the cemetery.

Dr. Patrick W. Birmingham served with the Texas Army during Texas war for independence (1836) and received a bounty grant of land in Lamar County. Dr. Birmingham established the first hospital in Paris - Birmingham Hospital.

A directory and map are located just inside the northwest corner entrance. Evergreen Cemetery Book by Elizabeth Booth and Tony Booth is a listing of those buried from 1866 to 1971. Some biographical information is included. A copy of this book is located at the Paris Public Library, the Lamar County Genealogical Library and the Lamar County Chamber of Commerce .

Active Senior Living

RETIREMENT

Paris is certified by the Texas Department of Agriculture as a Certified Retirement Community. This is a “seal of approval” letting retirees know that Paris can meet the living needs of its citizens and visitors — all the things that make Paris a great place to retire.

Gene and Ruth Ann Stallings could have retired anywhere in the world, but they chose Paris, Texas, because of its central location, cost of living, mild climate, abundance of medical facilities and an excellent quality of life.

Networking and socializing opportunities are offered by both public and private sectors. The AARP provides monthly meetings. Several senior citizens centers are located throughout Paris with county-wide centers growing. Active traveling groups sponsored by our hospital, banks and churches provide added social opportunities.

The Retired Senior Volunteer Program offers enrichment through significant community service work placing lifetime talents, experience, skills, and hobbies to community projects and non-profit organizations.

PrimeTime, a program for seniors, offers a variety of activities for members, including periodic health screening, group tours, games, and other social events. There is a nominal fee for membership. The center is at 1128 Clarksville St., Suite 300.

DEPORT

During the Great Paris Fire, the Mayor of Deport arrived in person to offer the assistance of 250 workers to help rebuild Paris after the devastating fire in 1916. With the financial hub that Deport was at that time, the banks of Deport helped support the customers of other Paris banks that were destroyed during this terrible period for Paris.

In 1980, there were over 60 businesses in and around Deport, but by the late 1990's, Deport was in a state of economic decline due to various factors. A group of concerned citizens serving on the Fire Department, the Deport City Council, and Project Deport have come together to help rebuild and rebrand Deport. Deport is known throughout Northeast Texas for the Fireworks Display on July 4th that is one of the largest and longest in the area. With work being done to build new homes, establish antique car shows throughout the spring and summer, along with the fishing and recreational activities available on the Tom Jeffus Reservoir, there is something for all ages to do and enjoy in Deport.

Deport, Texas is a small town with a big heart nestled 15 miles southeast of Paris. With a 10 minute drive to Paris, a great school district in Prairiland ISD, affordable housing, and a nice "country" atmosphere, this makes Deport one of the best small cities to raise a family and live.

Deport was founded in 1883 by Colonel Dee Thompson with a post office being established in the same year with postmaster Millard C. Nobles. With a rich and storied history, due to the establishment of Deport Independent School District in 1905 by the Texas Legislature and abundant cotton production, Deport became the second largest city in Lamar County, just behind Paris. With numerous banks, two movie theatres, two new car dealerships, a lumber yard, dry good store, and rail stop, Deport was truly in a period of "high cotton" throughout most of the early 20th century.

Tours are available at both museums upon request.

- City Drug Store Museum. This unique museum is the actual drug store in business in the 1930s and 40s. There is also an original marble soda fountain.

Roxton Events

- Hawg Waller Festival. Few can resist this lively event, which draws locals and tourists for a day of fun and activities.

- The annual July 4th fireworks display attracts hundreds of visitors every year.
- Roxton rings in the Christmas holiday with a Christmas tree lighting and a parade. Every other year, the Community Development Committee sponsors a Christmas Tour of Homes.

Roxton Amenities

- Roxton has two cafes, a grocery store, an antique/gift shop, a bed and breakfast and a service station.
- The local newspaper, the Roxton Progress, is published twice monthly.
- The Roxton Opry, a popular area event for country/western music lovers is held every Friday night at The Stage Stop in downtown Roxton.
- Roxton is a trailhead on the Chaparral Rails to Trails, part of the Northeast Texas Trail (NETT).

Roxton is a lively town of 700 only 15 miles southwest of Paris. Tucked in the rolling hills, the town is bounded by two creeks, one which is spanned by a picturesque triple arched, masonry railroad trestle, one of only two in the state of Texas.

Roxton was first established on a hill a mile east of where it is now, but moved to take advantage of the Santa Fe Railroad. It became a booming agricultural center, specializing in cotton at the time, and now a center for area grain harvests.

Roxton Saturday Night Festival more than 10 years strong

Lamar County has a rich history, and one of its longtime communities remembers its heritage every year with Roxton Saturday Night.

It's a day to relive a highlight of country life when people came to town from all around to not only restock supplies, but to relax, enjoy leisure time with old friends and meet new ones.

Each year, visitors to Roxton come from all across the area to remember the Saturday nights of long ago when families came by horseback and wagons to see a movie, eat ice cream and catch up on the news of the day.

Over the past 10 years, organizers have turned the event into a citywide festival celebrating its past with fun and games, memories and music.

Just about everything evokes the past, with special entertainment such as interviews of "visitors from the past" and more.

The town's museums open where history buffs can stroll through a real old-time drug store and visit the Chaparral Rails to Trails museum.

Bike Rentals

Through the fundraising efforts of the local Rotary Club and the support of local sponsors, Paris Texas now has our own bicycle rental kiosk located at the Love Civic Center. There are 20 bicycles that can be rented at this kiosk by using an application called Movatic from any Android or Apple device. The cost is $2 per rental and $2 per hour and you can rent as many as 5 bikes at one time. The bikes have a basket and an adjustable seat as well as a 7 speed adjustable gear feature. Many people who rent the bikes choose to ride them on our beautiful Trail de Paris, however they may be ridden anywhere in Paris of your choice using safety rules of bicycle riding.

Our mission of Making Communities Healthier® has always been central to the contributions we make to Paris and the surrounding region of northeast Texas and southeast Oklahoma. As our region found itself impacted by the COVID-19 pandemic, that mission became even more critical to the well-being of our community. We are proud to be part of a national healthcare network that provided quality care for more than 20,000 COVID-19 patients in 2020 – including those here at home. LifePoint Health's continued support – and yours – allows us to create places where people choose to come for healthcare, physicians want to practice and employees want to work. As we look ahead to a bright future, we look forward to further enhancing how we serve our neighbors today and for generations to come. Thank you.

—Steve Hyde, CEO

Last Year, we...

...added 40 employed, affiliated, telehealth and temporary providers

...made more than $4 million in capital improvements

...distributed a payroll of $62,151,812 to more than 830 employees

...donated more than $59.5 million in services to those in need

...paid $9,706,825 in taxes

Inviting the best possible providers into our community and supporting them is essential to ensuring access to high quality care. This year, we added providers in radiology and teleradiology, cardiology, emergency care, oncology, neurology, pediatrics, general surgery and more.

By continually investing in our facilities, we're helping to ensure that we continue to meet our community's healthcare needs. This year's investments included a complete renovation of our ER, a renovation of our ICU, and HVAC and negative pressure room upgrades.

We strive to create an environment where talent is recognized, job satisfaction is valued and our employees can effectively use their skills to provide high quality care and service.

Delivering care to all of our neighbors, regardless of their ability to pay, is foundational to our mission and our commitment to our community.

We are proud to be a leader in our region, and our dedication to ensuring fiscal responsibility extends both to our hospital and to our community.

Rotary Club of Paris United

Rotary Club of Paris United is a service organization of business and professional men and women united worldwide through Rotary International who conduct humanitarian projects, encourage high standards in all vocations and work toward world understanding and peace. Rotary Club of Paris United was formed late in 2014 when two Rotary clubs in Paris joined forces — the Greater Paris Rotary Club and the Rotary Club of Paris, the oldest club in District 5830, chartered in 1916. The club meets at noon on Thursdays in the Ballroom of the Paris Junior College Student Center.

The object of Rotary is to encourage and foster the ideal of service as a basis of worthy enterprise and, in particular, to encourage and foster:

First, The development of acquaintance as an opportunity for service;

Second, High ethical standards in business and professions, the recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations, and the dignifying of each Rotarian's occupation as an opportunity to serve society;

Third, The application of the ideas of service in each Rotarian's personal, business, and community life;

Fourth, The advancement of international understanding, goodwill and peace through a world fellowship of business and professional persons united in the ideal of service.

While the Rotary Club of Paris United is involved with the various projects sponsored by Rotary International, the club is also locally involved in many local projects. Among others, these include the Healthy Smiles dental program, Rotary Youth Leadership Program for juniors and seniors, student scholarships to Paris Junior College and other various worthy projects within the community.

Kiwanis Club

The six permanent Objects of Kiwanis International were approved by Kiwanis Club delegates at the 1924 International Convention in Denver, Colorado. Through the decades, they have remained unchanged.

The object of Kiwanis is:

- To give primacy to the human and spiritual, rather than to the material values of life.
- To encourage the daily living of the Golden Rule in all human relationships.
- To promote the adoption and application of high social, business, and professional standards.
- To develop, by precept and example, a more intelligent, aggressive, and serviceable citizenship.
- To provide, through this club, a practical means to form enduring friendships, to render altruistic service, and to build a better community.
- To cooperate in creating and maintaining that sound public opinion and high idealism which make possible the increase of righteousness, justice, patriotism, and good will.

The Kiwanis Club of Paris meets every Tuesday for lunch and a civic program in the Paris Junior College ballroom at noon. Kiwanis is a global organization of volunteers dedicated to changing the world, one child and one community at a time. The Paris club accomplishes this mission by sponsoring Key Clubs and Builders Clubs at local schools, hosting youth groups at our Camp Kiwanis site at Pat Mayse Lake, providing scholarships, reading to students, sponsoring food drives, mentoring children along with many other activities. Primary fund raisers for supporting these activities are the Kiwanis Pancake Days and "Fly your Flag" program.

Paris Optimist Club

The Breakfast Optimist Club of Paris meets on Monday at 6 p.m. from October to March, and Saturday at 8:10 a.m. from April to September. Meetings are at Sirloin Stockade Restaurant. The Optimist Club is responsible for many programs that benefit the youth of Paris and Lamar County. The club manages and operates the Lamar County youth baseball program for 700 boys and girls, and operates the Charles Taylor Youth Baseball Complex at Woodall Field. Other baseball related activities include youth tournaments and training youth to be umpires.

The Breakfast Optimist Club raises funds with an annual auction, a well-renowned community event. The club also sponsors the Optimist International Oratorical and Essay contests for Lamar County. Awards given by the Optimists include scholarships through the Ed Thomas Scholarship Fund and the Law Enforcement Officer of the Year Award. The club sponsors many other community activities including "Buddy Ball" of the Red River Valley Down Syndrome Association, CASA, NETCADA, Teen League Baseball, Boys and Girls Club, Lamar County Head Start, Think Child Safety, Kid Safe Saturday, Crime Stoppers, All-Police Rodeo, high school cheerleaders for area schools, Reading to the Future, Lamar County Chamber of Commerce member.

Lions Club

The Paris Founders Lions Club is 101 years old and continues to uphold the Lions motto — "We Serve" — since its inception shortly after the organization was born at a national convention in Dallas in October 1917.

As a "Founders" club, one of the first clubs organized following that Dallas convention, the Paris Founders Lions Club has supported Lionism's international goals, as well as helped to meet the needs of its community for nearly a century. Today, the Paris Founders Lions Club is one of more than 45,000 Lions Clubs around the world, encompassing more than 1.3 million members.

Locally, various Lions activities and fundraisers each year support numerous local organizations and projects, provide scholarships and act in support of one of Lionism's defining causes — sight programs. The Paris Founders Lions Club and other Texas Lions Clubs also support the Texas Lions Camp near Kerrville, Texas, a residential camping facility for children with physical disabilities, type 1 diabetes and cancer. The camp's services are free of charge to participating children.

The Paris Founders Lions Club raises funds through a variety of venues, including the operation of a hamburger and snack booth each year during the week-long run of the Red River Valley Fair. The club's luncheon meetings are held each Thursday at 11:45 a.m. in the McLemore Student Center on the campus of Paris Junior College.
