

Cody Davenport
American Realty
President-Elect

Having been a member for 7 years I've seen the importance of having this association. The support we receive as Bristol agents, licensed in two states, is truly invaluable. I appreciate the role BTVAR plays in serving not only its members but our local community. I look forward to serving as president elect and helping to continue the great things our members are doing.