"I am born and raised in Lodi and although I left for college and the corporate world, I found myself coming back to my roots to raise my family. After working in the wine and hospitality industry for 10+ years, I changed gears and became a licensed realtor. I have a passion for helping people find their dream home that fits all their needs. I love working in the Lodi area and showing my clients from out of town all that the city has to offer as it's transformed. When I am not working with clients, you can find me having a glass of wine or beer with some friends or letting out some energy with my toddlers at one of Lodi's great parks."
