WATERCOLOR BATIK WORKSHOP

Saturday, June 5, 2021

10:00 - 4:00

With Artist Ruth Hanson

This class is a step-by-step with one of my compositions provided. Students also receive extra rice paper to do one of their own compositions as well - so, they should bring reference material of landscape or floral.

Watercolor Batik is multi layering of melted wax and watercolor on rice paper alternating layers, working from light to dark, until the entire surface is covered with wax. Then crinkle your rice paper into a ball to crack the wax and lay flat again for the final darkest layer of watercolor to seep through those cracks.

Then we iron the wax out in newsprint and see what we've created! It's always an adventure.

COST: $60 MEMBERS $70 NONMEMBERS

SPECIAL PRICING THANKS TO RDAG CORPORATE SPONSORS! SPACE IS LIMITED.

*Registration: Call 701-591-1010 or go online at
