The core mission of the South County Chambers of Commerce is to create partnerships and opportunities that ensure South County businesses prosper. Please consider partnering with us on this mission by sponsoring the Chamber's 2023 Annual Dinner and Recognition Awards. This is a meaningful way for your business leadership to be showcased in the community. Your sponsorship supports the key services and programs of the Chamber throughout the year to benefit the local economy and workforce. Annual dinner attendees include local business owners, nonprofit leaders, elected officials, and community leaders.
