Dear Prospective Sponsor:

The stars are aligning to protect Native places. In this historic moment we have a rare opportunity to work toward real solutions for protecting Tribal sacred sites.

Accordingly, we are excited to announce our First Annual NATHPO Sacred Sites Summit – Virtual Event on September 22-23, 2021. This event will be a powerful incubator of possibilities as we bring Tribes, legislators, and agency leadership and staff together to make change a reality. Sessions will focus on:

- Connecting to place. While we work towards coming together safely again, we will offer virtual experiences to connect with the land and those who hold it sacred, grounding our purpose.
- What is. What is the state of current sacred sites protection in the U.S.? What is the existing policy framework and what are the gaps from the Tribal perspective?
- What should be. In a world where anything is possible, what is needed to close the gaps? What solutions would truly address the issues and protect places that define us?
- Action. We will catalyze real progress by defining recommendations and deliberate, measurable steps forward for preservation and reconciliation.

NATHPO is the only national organization devoted to supporting tribal historic preservation programs. We are a 501(c)(3) non-profit membership association of tribal preservation leaders protecting culturally important places that perpetuate Native identity, resilience, and cultural endurance. Connections to cultural heritage sustain the health and vitality of Native peoples. We provide guidance to preservation officials, elected representatives, and the public about national historic preservation legislation, policies, and regulations. We promote tribal sovereignty, develop partnerships, and advocate for Tribes in governmental activities on preservation issues.

Your contribution to NATHPO's mission is important. Participation and support of donors, members, and partners – like you – make our work possible, including offering virtual programming free to Tribal participants. Enclosed, please find the First Annual NATHPO Sacred Sites Summit Sponsorship Opportunities information. We thank you in advance for your generosity! In appreciation, our sponsorship incentives are also detailed there.

You can find more information about NATHPO online at www.nathpo.org, and follow us on Facebook. Please feel free to contact me if you have questions or need additional information, at valerie@nathpo.org or 202-628-8476. From all of us at NATHPO, thank you for your support and partnership!

NATHPO invites you to be a part of this summit and the momentum it will create to PROTECT NATIVE PLACES.

Sincerely,
