DIRECT IMPACT

Information that Directly Impacts YOU!

May 14, 2021

Want to Contact PCA? Email pca@pennchiro.org

What YOU Need To Know

- State Board of Chiropractic Meeting Minutes
- Pennsylvania Professional Licensing Waivers Update
- Introducing Patricia Stroble - PCA CE & Convention Coordinator

Ever Wondered What YOUR PA State Board of Chiropractic Does with YOUR Licensure Fees?

Your Pennsylvania Chiropractic Association (PCA) periodically receives inquiries from members and non-members about how their licensure/ re-licensure fees and other related fees are used by the Pennsylvania State Board of Chiropractic.

PCA is pleased to advise that you can now access the PA State Board of Chiropractic's Board minutes (pdf) going as far back as May of 2017.

Pennsylvania State Board of Chiropractic Meeting Minutes

Click on the link to view/print each set of minutes at your leisure

NOW YOU KNOW!

The Pennsylvania Bureau of Professional and Occupational Affairs recently sent out an email regarding the licensing waivers if the COVID-19 emergency disaster declaration is ended.

Click here to read the email from the BPOA

Please contact the BPOA with any questions you may have at 833-DOS-BPOA (833-367-2762).

INTRODUCING YOUR NEW CE & CONVENTION COORDINATOR
Patricia Stroble

Your PCA is proud to introduce our new CE & Convention Coordinator, Patricia Stroble. Patricia succeeds Jessica Sell, who is moving to Milwaukee with her husband Corey, who will be in his Emergency Medicine Residency Training Program for the next 3 years.

Patricia (aka, Patty) brings a varied and extensive association background in Continuing Education & Event Planning experience to PCA. PCA's CE Committee, Annual Convention Committee and staff look forward to her facilitating the continued growth of PCA's educational programs to benefit you and your office staff.

To reach Patty Stroble, email her at: ceconvention@pennchiro.org

Welcome to PCA, Patty!