Take in the spectacular scenery from the glass-domed railcars of the Wilderness Express on the train trip to Denali. From 3:30 p.m., the wonders of Denali are yours to explore. Saturday, August 2: Hubbard Glacier (Cruising)

Sightseeing 2 - 5 p.m. At 76 miles long and seven miles wide, North America's largest tidewater glacier makes even the largest ships in the region feel small. You may watch massive chunks of Hubbard Glacier's translucent blue ice crash into the bay with a bang like a cannon shot, a sound the Tlingit people call "White Thunder."

Sunday, August 3: Juneau, Alaska

From 9 a.m. - 8 p.m. You can't get to Juneau easily without a sprint by air or by sea...but once you arrive you'll find majestic views and rich culture in every corner. With its snowcapped mountains, misty rainforests, massive glaciers and bounty of wildlife, Alaska's remote state capital is the perfect place to dive into nature. Framed by Mount Juneau and Mount Roberts, the city's picturesque downtown area offers centuries-old bars, boutique shops and historic landmarks. Optional excursions include visiting the historic district and the Alaska State Museum, whale watching in Auke Bay Harbor, tundra trekking over Mendenhall Glacier or gold panning in Last Chance Basin.

Monday, August 4: Skagway, Alaska

From 7 a.m. - 8 p.m. Skagway symbolizes the spirit of Alaska. Optional excursions available to book include: a vintage train ride with dramatic, sweeping views at every turn or trekking through the dense rainforest and windswept valleys of Chilkoot Trail to follow in the footsteps of Klondike pioneers. Guests may also choose to stroll the charming downtown streets studded with historical buildings. Whatever you get up to in Skagway, it'll be a day you'll never forget.

Tuesday, August 5: Icy Strait Point

From 6:30 a.m. - 3:30 p.m. Icy Strait Point is one tiny port that's big on Alaskan wilderness and Native culture. Opened a decade ago by the Huna Tlingit Native Alaskans, it's easily one of the best spots in the region for fishing and whale watching. Optional excursions include a tribal dance show, visiting Hoonah, Alaska's largest Tlingit village, a guided nature hike through nearby rainforests, hop on an ATV and explore the backroads of Chichagof Island, or take in forest views while soaring high above the trees on the longest zip line in the world.

Wednesday, August 6: Ketchikan, Alaska

From 9:30 a.m. - 6:30 p.m. Ketchikan sits at the southern end of Alaska's Inside Passage— a gateway to the wild landscapes and seascapes of Misty Fjords National Monument. It's home to three tribes of Northwest Coast Native Americans, making it a great place to get a taste for the local culture. You'll see it in the colorful, hand-carved totems that line the city's streets and parks. Optional excursions available to Tongass National Forest and Ketchikan Creek Waterfall.

Thursday, August 7: Inside Passage, Canada

Sightseeing Only. Your ship offers the perfect platform for viewing British Columbia's Inside Passage. This archipelago spans 25,000 miles from Seattle to Prince Rupert near the Alaskan border. Here you'll ply calm waters sheltered between the British Columbia mainland and Vancouver Island. Along the way catch a glimpse of breathtakingly rugged scenery, plus staggering wildlife like salmon sharks, white spirit bears, and millions of seabirds.
