I look forward to seeing many of you at the bar convention this month. It may look a little different, but it is good to get back together. It is amazing to me how much work goes into planning the convention. Our bar staff works extremely hard behind the scenes to make sure everything runs smoothly.

Thank you for the opportunity to serve as your Bar President this past year. Unfortunately, most meetings were cancelled or went online. A recent strategic planning meeting reminded me that there were some good things that came out of this pandemic. If we focus on the positive, we can accomplish some great thing as a State Bar.

This is the final interview with bar staff. Kylee is the newest person in the office. She is likely the voice you hear answering the phone when you call the office. Here is my conversation with Kylee.

TERRY: First, why did you apply for a position with the State Bar and what keeps you here?

Kylee: To make a long story short, my previous job was able to help me get to where I wanted to be in life. Therefore, I had to make the decision to search for a job that would. Apparently, I didn’t make as big of a fool out of myself during my interview, as I thought I had.

I stay because of the simple fact that the Bar, was able to provide what my previous job could not. The ability for me to grow in my career, sustain a life on my own, provide more opportunities, & most importantly, a work family which I care for dearly.

TERRY: What did you do before you started working for the State Bar?

Kylee: I did basically the same job position as I am here, but I was with the State of South Dakota, in the Bureau of Information & Telecommunications department.

TERRY: What do you enjoy doing when you’re not in the office?

Kylee: I love to go horseback riding, snuggle with my fur babies (Cinch & Diesel), & workout. I just got my motorcycle license as well, so that will probably become a favorite too.
TERRY: Where do you live?

Kylee: Over by The Izaak Walton & PILC Soccer field, in a nice little neighborhood.

TERRY: Would you say you are more of an introvert or extrovert, and why?

Kylee: I am most definitely an introvert. But, depending on the person/people I am around, I can be a full-blown extrovert! Which isn’t always a good thing haha.

TERRY: What is your favorite holiday?

Kylee: Christmas!

TERRY: What are some of your favorite things?

MOVIE: I love too many. So, my favorite genres would be Horror & Romance.
BAND/MUSICIAN: I also love too many! Some of my tops would have to be Coffey Anderson & Reba McEntire.
VACATION SPOT: I do not get out much… but I have always been in love with Australia.
COLOR: All the shades of Blue & Grey.
ICE CREAM FLAVOR: ALL.
MEAL TO EAT: Medium Rare Sirloin, with sweet potato fries & ranch. For dessert, a Danny’s Special donut from The Donut Shop.
RESTAURANT IN PIERRE: Guadalajara’s or Tokyo.
SEASON OF YEAR: Fall.

TERRY: One final question for me to keep in mind when I stop into the State Bar office in Pierre. How do you take your coffee/favorite beverage?

Kylee: Decaf Vanilla Latte with Almond Milk
Happy June everyone! I am excited that we will again have an in-person bar convention this year. I always look forward to the bar convention to see all my colleagues from around the state. You will be seeing the Young Lawyers around! We will elect new board members in the odd-numbered circuits and will elect officers. Nominations can still be taken during the annual meeting for anyone interested in taking on a leadership role. Young Lawyers will also announce the Young Lawyer of the Year award, with a reception following, called the “Legalpalooza” to honor the recipient’s achievement. Thank you to The Court Reporter’s Association and South Dakota Trial Lawyers Association for co-sponsoring this event! Look forward to a Young Lawyer’s event Thursday evening, and a Yoga session Friday morning. I also have the distinct pleasure to present a bar member with the Young Lawyer’s President Appreciation Award, which will be announced during the Business Meeting.

The Annual Meeting will serve as the end of my term as President of the Young Lawyers Section. I have enjoyed my time serving the State Bar and working with other bar leaders and young lawyers to foster connections and mentorship, provide CLE programming to our members, and to serve the public. Involvement in the State Bar presents opportunities to network and make friends among other bar members, to broaden one’s knowledge, and to serve the community. As part of my sendoff, I’ll use the platform to encourage all young lawyers to get involved with your local or state bar organization. It will take only a small fraction of your time, and I promise you will find it rewarding.

I now introduce President-Elect Ole Olesen who will take the reins in serving as the Young Lawyer Section President. Ole has helped me tremendously, and I’m confident he will continue to be an awesome leader throughout the next year and will improve and expand upon the foundation that has been laid by past young lawyers. I would like to thank Terry Westergaard, bar commissioners, Andy Fergel, Nicole Ogan, Tracie Bradford, Elizabeth Overmoe, and Nate Chicoine for guiding the board and me through this year’s programs. I also owe thanks to all my board members who dedicated their time and energy during the past year – Anthony Sutton, Rachel Mairose, Tyler Coverdale, Tony Teesdale, Mariah Bloom, Jenny Jorgenson, Chelsea Wenzel, Kelsey Weber, Arman Zeljkovic, and Lexi Baca. These board members carried the load of organizing and executing programming this year, and I greatly appreciate their efforts.

I also want to take the opportunity to thank the Attorney General’s Office for encouraging me to be active in the bar, and allowing me to take the time to serve on the Young Lawyers Section Board. I have served on this board for the past five years, and I will greatly miss it. I have enjoyed connecting with other lawyers over the years, and look forward to the next chapter.
The 2021 Annual Business Meeting will be held on June 18th 2021, starting at 8 am. Members are encouraged to attend this meeting in person if they are comfortable, however online attendance is once again available. Voting at the business meeting will be conducted via Zoom.

- In person attendees who are active bar members will be emailed a link (to the email address provided on their registration sign up) on June 17th. This link will allow in person attendees to submit their votes electronically. IF YOU DO NOT HAVE A SMARTPHONE OR DEVICE FOR VOTING, please see the registration desk to arrange for paper ballot on Friday.
- Online attendees may view, listen and vote at the meeting via Zoom. In order to attend the meeting online, members must register by June 16th to receive the zoom link.
Fellows of the South Dakota Bar Foundation

Many South Dakota lawyers have risen to the challenge of making the SD Bar Foundation a favorite charity. Such generosity deserves public acknowledgement. Therefore, the Bar Foundation Board of Directors has created a “Fellows” program to not only make such acknowledgement, but also to provide an opportunity for more of our members to participate and determine their personal level of professional philanthropy. Participation can be on an annual basis or by pledge with payments over a period of time. All contributions made to the “Fellows” program will be deposited in the Foundation’s endowment account managed by the SD Community Foundation – famous for low management fees and excellent investment returns. Donations to the endowment are tax deductible and a perpetual gift to our profession and the educational endeavors and charities the Foundation supports.

Our Profession. Our Responsibility.
Our recruiting cycle is in full swing. The Class of 2024 is taking shape as I write (hard as it is to believe that is the year). I will be very excited to give you a deeper introduction to that class later this summer. For now, however, I am excited to introduce you to Katey Ulrich, our Director of Admissions and Marketing. Family pulled Liz Taggart out of the Law School to Sioux Falls in the middle of the academic year. Katey was working with the Community College of Sioux Falls and the name everyone suggested as the perfect person for Admissions at the Law School. That has certainly proven true as she has continued the excellent work Liz did and incorporated her own new ideas in recent months. She will be at the Bar Convention and I hope many of you get to meet her. For now, however, I want to turn the column over to her to introduce herself. See you in Sioux Falls!

Hello! My name is Katey Ulrich and I joined the law school staff in January 2021 as the Director of Admissions and Marketing. I am originally from Watertown, South Dakota and attended USD for my B.S. in Psychology and M.A. in Educational Administration – Adult and Higher Education. I have worked at USD for five years in admissions and student services and am thrilled to have joined the law school team. This transition has been exciting, challenging, and rewarding. The last four months have been very busy as we wrapped up the 2020-2021 school year, a year unlike any other, and began recruiting the Class of 2024 in earnest. As we look forward to Fall, we are excited to start having more events and speakers and bringing in an outstanding class of future lawyers!

Our Class of 2024 is on track to be around 80 students with our LSAT and GPA metrics rising slightly from recent years. The composition will likely be half women and half out of state students, both higher percentage than in the last several years. The increase in out of state students doubtless has some connection to our expansion of resident tuition to students with an LSAT at or above 150. Previously it was available only to students at or above 155 and we yielded very few students in that lower band. We have seen a significant increase since the BOR approved the policy change and hope to draw more students to South Dakota to continue their education and begin their careers.

In April, we held our first Law Camp with incredible help from many friends of the law school. This virtual event attracted nearly 50 high school students to learn about different opportunities to work in legal careers like judges, private and public practice lawyers, court clerks, and law enforcement. As we look towards the future, it will be critical to get students thinking about a career in law earlier in their education. As I know Dean Fulton has told many of you, the number of students graduating from high school and attending universities will begin to dramatically decline in the next 5 years. We are looking forward to continuing that program and expanding our efforts with high schools. Additionally, we are increasing Law Honors and 3+3 programming at the University of South Dakota to engage with undergraduate students that are currently at USD. This year, we started a law honors program at Northern State University. It will offer preferred admission and scholarship support for up to five NSU seniors. We are working with firms and universities to increase our connection to Sioux City to draw more students.

We are looking forward to returning to some of our standard recruiting strategies as LSAC Forums begin again in the Fall but are optimistic about the way virtual recruiting and events will increase our accessibility to students that we may have had a harder time reaching in the past. With many changes that have occurred in the last year, this is an exciting time to be in recruiting as we think of new and collaborative ways to reach our future students. If there is a way for us to partner or support any programming you are working on, please reach out!
A Special Thanks

An attorney’s decision to use a computer tablet, a cloud-based service, a smart phone, a public Wi-Fi network, or a free email account in the furtherance of delivering legal services is not, in and of itself, unethical or necessarily a poor business decision. The real concern is with what the attorneys who use such tools do or don’t do with them. For example, portable devices, which includes backup drives, can be lost or stolen; rogue programs that capture banking passwords, encrypt your data, or steal your data can be unintentionally downloaded; and this list goes on and on. These kinds of breaches are often the result of common missteps such as lax security procedures, falling victim to a social engineering attack, and even simple ignorance about how a given device works or what a computer app or program really does. This ethics program will discuss various cyberattack vectors and share practical advice on how to manage the risk of a breach.

This program will identify common malpractice missteps lawyers make and discuss practical ways each misstep can be avoided. Participants will learn how problems can arise from a variety of file documentation missteps, where conflict of interest traps lie, and why redundant calendaring systems can lead to a false sense of security just for starters.
“As a dedicated member of the South Dakota State Bar for more than 25 years, I would be honored to serve as your 2021-22 President-Elect and thereafter 2022-23 President.”

No one enjoys hearing feedback about themselves that is critical in nature; but don’t get me wrong. Sometimes we need to hear that we’re not meeting the expectations of others. Critical feedback shared respectfully can be a wonderful opportunity for personal and professional growth. That said, when a former client posts a review, on something like an attorney rating site, which is full of vitriol and outright lies, well that’s something else entirely. Now the temptation to fight back and defend one’s reputation is in play. The interesting ethical question is this. Can you?

The answer isn’t as simple as you might think. Yes, there is an exception in our confidentiality rule (Rule 1.6) that permits an attorney to reveal information relating to the representation of a client to the extent the attorney reasonably believes necessary to establish a claim or defense in a controversy between the attorney and the client. This is often referred to as the self-defense exception. Unfortunately, every authority who has considered the question has held that an attorney facing this situation cannot disclose confidential information to rebut a former client’s allegations about the attorney’s representation of that person. Why? Because there is no legal controversy. The exception really doesn’t come into play unless and until you are having to deal with the likes of a bar complaint, legal malpractice claim, or fee dispute. A negative online review simply doesn’t get you there.

Although, while you can’t disclose client confidences to defend yourself, there is no ethical prohibition against disagreeing with this client’s publicly voiced criticisms of you in more generic terms. As a risk guy, however, I need to suggest that doing so may not be the best idea depending upon how you end up handling the exchange. Think about how others, some of whom might be potential new clients or even current clients, might respond to the debate you are about to enter into.

For example, don’t take the bait on a fight you won’t win. Participating in name calling, a war of words, or worse can too easily be viewed as you being someone who can’t handle a little criticism; and truth be told, the consuming public isn’t interested in trying to figure out who’s right and who’s wrong in their respective opinions. Making matters worse, the very fact that you feel free to fight with a former client on an online forum would suggest to any viewer that they risk being treated similarly were they ever to voice dissatisfaction with your services.

The better choice is to view the negative review for what it is, a marketing opportunity. Josh King, former General Counsel for Avvo, has shared the following advice to lawyers fearful of the fallout of a negative online review and I agree with him wholeheartedly.

"Negative commentary can be a golden marketing opportunity. By posting a professional, meaningful response to negative commentary, an attorney sends a powerful message to any readers of that review. Done correctly, such a message communicates responsiveness, attention to feedback and strength of character. The trick is to not get defensive, petty, or feel the need to directly refute what you perceive is wrong with the review. . . . [A] poorly-handled response to a negative review is much worse than no response at all. It makes you look thin-skinned and defensive. Worse yet, if you argue and reveal client confidences (or even potential harmful non-confidences), you may be subject to discipline.

What might such a response look like? While the specifics of the negative review matter, here’s just one idea:

"It is unfortunate that the author of this negative review chose not to leave any identifying information which would have allowed me the opportunity to address his or her specific concerns directly. Understand that as a lawyer I am ethically prohibited from revealing information relating to my representation of any client in a public forum; however, I always welcome the opportunity to discuss the concerns any client, former or current, might have with the service I provide. It is with pride that I share that I have handled over 500 matters of this type during my 21 years of practice and I have yet to have anyone directly express any concerns with the representation they received.

I know that the desire to standup and defend one’s self can be strong, particularly when your professional skills and reputation are called into question. Should you ever find yourself staring at a negative review that starts to make your blood boil, just stop and take a few breathes. Remember what Rule 1.6 says, think about what it means to be a professional, and take the high road by drafting a response along the lines of what I’ve suggested. As I see it, there’s no better ethically permissible way to try and shut the criticism down and why not take advantage of Josh’s “golden marketing opportunity” at the same time!

Business Law Committee:

Proposed legislation to repeal SDCL §§ 47-34A-1010 through 47-34A-1016, of Article 10 of the Uniform Limited Liability Company Act, to eliminate duplication and conflict with the domestication statutes in Article 9 of the Uniform Limited Liability Company Act. The full proposal follows directly below.

An Act to repeal certain domestication provisions in the Uniform Limited Liability Company Act.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF SOUTH DAKOTA:

Section 1. That §§ 47-34A-1010 to 47-34A-1016 be REPEALED.

47-34A-1010. Domestication.

(a) A foreign limited liability company may become a domestic limited liability company only if the domestication is permitted by the organic law of the foreign limited liability company.

(b) A domestic limited liability company not required by law to be a domestic limited liability company may become a foreign limited liability company if the domestication is permitted by the laws of the foreign jurisdiction. Regardless of whether the laws of the foreign jurisdiction require the adoption of a plan of domestication, the domestication shall be approved by the adoption of the limited liability company of a plan of domestication in the manner provided in this section and §§ 47-34A-1011 to 47-34A-1016, inclusive.

47-34A-1011. Plan of domestication.

(a) The plan of domestication shall include:

(1) A statement of the jurisdiction in which the limited liability company is presently domesticated; and

(2) A statement of the jurisdiction in which the limited liability company is to be domesticated.

(b) The plan of domestication may include:

(1) As a referenced attachment, the articles of organization of the limited liability company upon its domestication; and
(2) Any other provision relating to the domestication.

(c) The plan of domestication may also include a provision that the plan may be amended at any time prior to filing the document required by the laws of this state or the other jurisdiction to consummate the domestication.

47-34A-1012. Action on plan of domestication by a domestic limited liability company.

In the case of a domestic limited liability company:

(a) Unless the articles of organization or a written operating agreement of the limited liability company provides otherwise, the members of the limited liability company shall approve the plan of domestication by the members in the manner provided in the limited liability company's operating agreement for amendments to the operating agreement or, if no such provision is made in an operating agreement, by all the members.

(b) If an amendment to a plan of domestication is made in accordance with subsection 47-34A-1011(c), and articles of domestication already have been filed with the secretary of state, amended articles of domestication shall be filed with the secretary of state before the effective date of any certificate of domestication issued by the secretary of state for the articles of domestication which the amended articles are to supersede.

47-34A-1013. Articles of domestication.

(a) After the domestication of a foreign limited liability company is approved in the manner required by the laws of the jurisdiction in which the limited liability company is organized, the limited liability company shall file with the secretary of state articles of domestication setting forth:

(1) The name of the limited liability company immediately prior to the filing of the articles of domestication and, if that name is unavailable for use in this state or the limited liability company desires to change its name in connection with the domestication, a name that satisfies the requirements of § 47-34A-105;

(2) The plan of domestication; and

(3) The original jurisdiction of the limited liability company and the date the limited liability company was organized in that jurisdiction, and each subsequent jurisdiction and the date the limited liability company was domesticated in each such jurisdiction, if any, prior to the filing of the articles of domestication.

(b) The articles of domestication shall have attached articles of organization that comply with the requirements contained in § 47-34A-203.
(c) If the secretary of state finds that the articles of domestication comply with the requirements of law and that all required fees have been paid, the secretary of state shall issue a certificate of domestication.

(d) The articles of domestication shall become effective pursuant to § 47-34A-206.

(e) A foreign limited liability company's existence as a domestic limited liability company shall begin when the certificate of domestication is effective. Upon becoming effective, the certificate of domestication shall be conclusive evidence that all conditions precedent required to be performed by the foreign limited liability company have been complied with and that the limited liability company has been organized under this chapter.

(f) If the foreign limited liability company is authorized to transact business in this state under § 47-34A-1004, its certificate of authority is canceled automatically on the effective date of the certificate of domestication issued by the secretary of state.

47-34A-1014. Surrender of articles of organization upon domestication.

(a) If a domestic limited liability company has approved, in the manner required by § 47-34A-1012, a plan of domestication providing for the limited liability company to be domesticated under the laws of another jurisdiction, the limited liability company shall file with the secretary of state articles of organization surrender setting forth:

(1) The name of the limited liability company;
(2) The limited liability company's new jurisdiction of organization;
(3) The plan of domestication;
(4) A statement that the articles of organization surrender are being filed in connection with the domestication of the limited liability company as a foreign limited liability company to be organized under the laws of another jurisdiction and that the limited liability company is surrendering its certificate of organization under the laws of this state;
(5) A statement that the limited liability company revokes the authority of its registered agent to accept service on its behalf and appoints the secretary of state as its agent for service of process in any proceeding based on a cause of action arising during the time it was organized in this state.
(6) A mailing address to which the secretary of state may mail a copy of any process served on the secretary of state under subdivision (5); and

(7) A commitment to notify the secretary of state in the future of any change in the mailing address of the limited liability company.

(b) If the secretary of state finds that the articles of organization surrender comply with the requirements of law and that all required fees have been paid, the secretary of state shall issue a certificate of organization surrender.

(c) The limited liability company shall automatically cease to be a domestic limited liability company when the certificate of organization surrender becomes effective.

(d) If the former domestic limited liability company intends to continue to transact business in the state, within thirty days after the effective date of the certificate of organization surrender issued pursuant to subsection (b), the former domestic limited liability company shall deliver to the secretary of state an application for a certificate of authority to transact business in the state pursuant to § 47-34A-1002 together with a certificate of existence or a record of similar import authentication by the secretary of state or other official having custody of company records in the state or country under whose law it is organized together with any fee required by § 47-34A-1206 and any other required fee.

47-34A-1015. Effect of domestication.

(a) When a foreign limited liability company's certificate of domestication in this state becomes effective, with respect to that limited liability company:

(1) The title to all real estate and other property remains in the limited liability company without reversion or impairment;

(2) The liabilities remain the liabilities of the limited liability company;

(3) A proceeding pending may be continued by or against the limited liability company as if the domestication did not occur;

(4) The articles of organization attached to the articles of organization constitute the articles of organization of the limited liability company; and

(5) The limited liability company is deemed to:

(i) Be organized under the laws of this state for all purposes;

(ii) Be the same limited liability company as the limited liability company that existed under the laws of the jurisdiction or jurisdictions in which it was originally organized or formerly domesticated; and
(iii) Have been organized on the date it was originally formed or organized.

(b) Any member of a foreign limited liability company that domesticates into this state who, prior to the domestication, was liable for the liabilities or obligations of the limited liability company is not released from those liabilities or obligations by reason of the domestication.

47-34A-1016. Abandonment of domestication.

(a) Unless the domestic limited liability company's articles of organization, operating agreement, or the plan of domestication provides otherwise, after the domestication has been authorized and at any time before the effective date of the certificate of domestication issued by the Office of the Secretary of State, the domestication may be abandoned by majority vote of the members of the domestic limited liability company.

(b) If a domestication is abandoned under subsection (a) after articles of organization surrender have been filed with the secretary of state but before the certificate of organization surrender has become effective, written notice that the domestication has been abandoned in accordance with this section shall be filed with the secretary of state prior to the effective date of the certificate of organization surrender. The notice shall take effect upon filing and the domestication shall be deemed abandoned and shall not become effective.

(c) If the domestication of a foreign limited liability company into this state is abandoned in accordance with the laws of the foreign jurisdiction after articles of domestication have been filed with the secretary of state but before the certificate of domestication has become effective in this state, written notice that the domestication has been abandoned shall be filed with the secretary of state prior to the effective date of the certificate of domestication. The notice shall take effect upon filing and the domestication shall be deemed abandoned and shall not become effective.

Elder Law Committee:

Proposed legislation to authorize remote witnessing for five varieties of legal instruments associated with estate planning: Wills, Living Wills, Healthcare Powers of Attorney, Anatomical Gifts/Refusals, and Pre-Need Cremation
Authorizations. The full proposal follows directly below.
An Act to provide for remote witnessing of certain legal instruments.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF SOUTH DAKOTA:

Section 1. That a NEW SECTION be added:

Definitions.

(4) “Video communication technology,” an electronic device or process that allows a signer and a remotely located person or persons not in the physical presence of the signer to communicate in real-time with each other simultaneously by sight and sound and which makes any necessary reasonable accommodation for individuals with vision, hearing, or speech impairments.
(5) “Signer,” an individual who signs or acknowledges her or his signature. A signer also includes an individual who directs another person to sign for the signer in the physical presence of the signer.

Section 2. That a NEW SECTION be added:

The term “conscious presence” in § 29A-2-502(b)(3) also includes electronic presence.

Section 3. That a NEW SECTION be added:

Living Wills.

A declaration made pursuant to § 34-12D-2 may also be witnessed by two adult individuals in the electronic presence of the declarant.

Section 4. That a NEW SECTION be added:

A durable power of attorney for health care decisions made pursuant to § 59-7-2.1 may also be witnessed by two other adult individuals in the electronic presence of the principal.

Section 5. That a NEW SECTION be added:

An anatomical gift or a refusal to make an anatomical gift of the individual’s body or part thereof pursuant to §§ 34-26-52(b) or 34-26-54(b) may also be witnessed by two adults, at least one of whom is a disinterested witness, who have signed at the request of the signer in the electronic presence of the signer.

Section 6. That a NEW SECTION be added:

Pre-Need Cremation Authorization.

A pre-need cremation authorization made pursuant to § 34-26A-38 may also be witnessed by two witnesses in the electronic presence of the person as authorizing agent.

Section 7. That a NEW SECTION be added:

Electronic Presence and Impairment Recitals.

(1) An instrument which is witnessed in the electronic presence of two or more individuals should recite: (a) that the witnessing was conducted by electronic means; and (b) the physical location of the witness or witnesses. The failure to so recite shall not render the witnessing invalid.

(2) An instrument which is witnessed pursuant to this chapter where two or more individuals have substantial vision, hearing, or speech impairments should recite: (a) the existence and nature of such impairments; and (b) the reasonable accommodations made. The failure to so recite shall not render the witnessing invalid.

Ethics Committee:

Proposal to amend South Dakota Rule of Professional Conduct 1.2 by adding a new section “(e)” and a new comment to Rule 1.2, to specifically permit a lawyer to counsel or assist a client regarding conduct expressly permitted by South Dakota Cannabis laws, even if the same conduct violates federal law. The full proposal follows directly below.
Rule 1.2. Scope of Representation and Allocation of Authority Between Client and Lawyer

(a) Subject to paragraphs (c) and (d), a lawyer shall abide by a client's decisions concerning the objectives of representation and, as required by Rule 1.4, shall consult with the client as to the means by which they are to be pursued. A lawyer may take such action on behalf of the client as is impliedly authorized to carry out the representation. A lawyer shall abide by a client's decision whether to settle a matter. In a criminal case, the lawyer shall abide by the client's decision, after consultation with the lawyer, as to a plea to be entered, whether to waive jury trial and whether the client will testify.

(b) A lawyer's representation of a client, including representation by appointment, does not constitute an endorsement of the client's political, economic, social or moral views or activities.

(c) A lawyer may limit the scope of the representation if the limitation is reasonable under the circumstances and the client gives informed consent.

(d) A lawyer shall not counsel a client to engage, or assist a client, in conduct that the lawyer knows is criminal or fraudulent, but a lawyer may discuss the legal consequences of any proposed course of conduct with a client and may counsel or assist a client to make a good faith effort to determine the validity, scope, meaning or application of the law.

(e) Notwithstanding subsection (d), a lawyer may counsel or assist a client regarding conduct expressly permitted by South Dakota Cannabis laws, even if the same conduct violates federal law, but the lawyer must inform the client that the conduct violates federal law and advise the client about the legal consequences under federal law of the client’s proposed course of conduct.

Comment: "Subsection (e) addresses the conflict between South Dakota state law and federal law related to the cultivation, distribution, or use of marijuana. This subsection is intended to clarify that, notwithstanding federal law prohibitions, a lawyer may ethically advise a client about complying with South Dakota’s Cannabis laws. This advice and assistance may include providing legal services to a client to help the client create or operate a business that is lawful under South Dakota’s Cannabis laws, such as: advice and services related to incorporating a business; tax, employment, and contract-related advice and services; lobbying to government agencies about the scope of or changes to the law; and otherwise assisting a client with operating a business in compliance with South Dakota law. It may also include providing legal advice or advocacy to a state, county, or municipal government body in discussing, drafting, and enacting statutes or regulations to implement South Dakota’s Cannabis laws. This list of potential acceptable conduct is intended to be exemplary, not limiting.

However, a lawyer may not advise a client about how to avoid the detection or prosecution by federal authorities of the same conduct. The lawyer must also inform the client of the conflict between state and federal law, including the potential for criminal liability and the penalties that could be associated with violating federal law. Where appropriate the lawyer must also advise the client of other potential impacts on the lawyer-client relationship, including on the attorney-client privilege, which could arise from the fact the client’s conduct may be prohibited under federal law. Finally, the rules of the Federal District Court for the District of South Dakota are not impacted by this comment, even if it has adopted these rules as its own.”

Evidence Committee:

Proposal to amend SDCL 19-19-404(b) concerning crimes, wrongs, or other acts through the Supreme Court’s rulemaking process. The full proposal follows directly below.

PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO SDCL 19-19-404(b):

(b) Other crimes, wrongs, or other acts.

(2) Permitted uses; notice in a criminal case. This evidence may be admissible for another purpose, such as proving motive, opportunity, intent, preparation, plan, knowledge, identity, absence of mistake, or lack of accident. On request by a defendant in a criminal case, the prosecutor must:

(3) Notice in a criminal case. In a criminal case, the prosecutor must:
(A) Provide reasonable notice of the general nature of any such evidence that the prosecutor intends to offer at trial, so that the defendant has a fair opportunity to meet it; and

(B) Articulate in the notice the permitted purpose for which the prosecutor intends to offer the evidence and the reasoning that supports the purpose; and

(C) Do so in writing before trial - or in any form during trial if the court, for good cause, excuses lack of pretrial notice.

Proposal to amend SDCL 19-19-807 concerning the residual exception to a hearsay statement through the Supreme Court’s rulemaking process. The full proposal follows directly below.

PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO SDCL 19-19-807:

(a) In general. Under the following circumstances, a hearsay statement is not excluded by the rule against hearsay even if the statement is not specifically covered by admissible under a hearsay exception in § 19-19-803 or 19-19-804.
