The AGC UAF Chapter Needs Your Support!

The AGC Student Chapter is asking for support in the form of donations of wooden pallets for the Annual UAF Starvation Gulch festival. The Starvation Gulch bonfire is one of the oldest and strongest UAF traditions.

Pallet donations can be dropped off Monday - Friday from 8 AM to 5 PM at the AGC Fairbanks Branch Office, or the AGC UAF Student Chapter is more than happy to schedule a pick up.

To schedule a pick up, please contact Taylor Tharp at tbtharp@alaska.edu or call 928-533-1893.

Mark your Calendar to join us November 7-10, 2018 at the Hotel Captain Cook for the AGC of Alaska Annual Conference. Conference registration options include full day, full conference, or single event only options. Meals are again included in both day and full conference registration rates.

We are changing things up a bit this year. We have moved the DOT & DOD sessions, that you typically found on Thursday, to Wednesday and they will be the only track that day with lunch on your own.

The Marsh & McLennan President's Welcome, taking place from 5:30 to 9:00 pm on Wednesday evening will again include the Vendors. Look for the ConocoPhillips "Excellence in Safety" to be a breakfast on Thursday from 8:00 to 10:00 am followed by three tracks of sessions, including several 30 minute mini sessions. If you would like more information on the conference contact Kimberley at 907-561-5354 or kimberley@agcak.org. For registration and sponsorship information, click here!

Alaska Miners Association & AGC team up on our Vendor Rooms...again!

The AGC Annual Conference is the crown jewel of AGC's yearly event schedule. Featuring multiple days of educational presentations, seminars, and panels representing all facets of the construction industry. Coupled with the awards ceremonies, numerous networking lunches and receptions, you can't afford to miss it! This year, the AGC is again teaming up with the Alaska Miners Association (AMA) to offer access to each other's Vendor Rooms during our conferences as they overlap. Click here to view the informational flyer with all the details.

Adams Grader Heads Home

After 10 years in the yard at the AGC office in Anchorage the Adams Grader is returning home to the Fairbanks area.

AGC of Alaska would like to THANK Carlile Transportation for stepping in and moving the equipment north and returning it home safely.
