About The ACEC Junior Board

The Junior Board's Mission:

The ACEC Georgia Board is a group of young engineering industry professionals who are eager to get more involved in the business side of engineering, engage in ACEC Georgia, and expand their networks through social, educational, and volunteer opportunities.

The Junior Board will have 5 Priorities:

Input and New Perspectives Professional Development Growth

Raising Brand Awareness Socializing & Networking

Volunteering

Input and New Perspectives:

Board members will provide feedback and bring fresh perspectives to ACEC Georgia at the monthly meetings. Each meeting will have a set agenda and the opportunity for Board members to provide their thoughts on engagement opportunities, improvements, and new ideas for ACEC Georgia to increase its value to the younger employees of its Member Firms. Board members should be prepared to engage in the meetings and provide their thoughts and ideas on how ACEC Georgia can continue to provide the best-in-class information and events for our members.

Professional Development Growth:

Serving on the Junior Board will provide you with an excellent opportunity to expand your professional development within the engineering community. There will be programs, volunteer opportunities, and networking that will allow you to grow as an individual and professional. We encourage you to take advantage of the opportunities this board will provide you.

Raising Brand Awareness:

Please be sure to follow ACEC Georgia on social media to see what events we have going on and receive news and updates. As a member of the ACEC Georgia Junior Board, you are a representative of ACEC Georgia, and we encourage you to share posts with your community and help us build our brand awareness and followers. Make sure to tag us in your posts!

About The ACEC Junior Board

Socializing & Networking:

Board members will plan engaging social events for the Junior Board throughout the year. These will be opportunities for Junior Board members to get to know each other better and engage with each other outside of ACEC Georgia events. Potential ideas could include scheduling a time to go to a brewery for an evening after work or meeting up with each other one-on-one for coffee. We encourage you to build relationships with your fellow Junior Board members through your term and to share information for upcoming socializing and networking opportunities via email, Slack and at the monthly meetings.

Volunteering:

Volunteering is going to be a big part of your services on the ACEC Georgia Junior Board. Each member is expected to volunteer to serve on at least one committee, forum, or task force. A list of all of these groups can be found in the ACEC Georgia Junior Board Handbook and on the ACEC Georgia website. You will also have opportunities to volunteer at ACEC Georgia events, such as our Introduce a Girl to Engineering Day and the Georgia Transportation Summit. You must volunteer for at least two events during your term. We will be communicating all volunteer opportunities via email, Slack, and at the monthly meetings. Volunteering is a great way for you to advance your career through volunteer leadership, expand your professional network, and give back to the engineering community, so be sure to take advantage of it!

The ACEC Georgia Junior Board Benefits

For Prospective Junior Board Members:

Serving on the Junior Board will provide members with an excellent opportunity to expand their professional development, build their personal network and broaden their exposure to the business side of engineering. Programs, volunteer opportunities, and networking will allow members to grow as individuals and professionals. Members will also be able to provide their insights and perspectives on various ACEC Georgia initiatives and programs. Serving on the Junior Board will also provide valuable experience that can be a steppingstone to serving in other leadership positions in the future.

One member of the Junior Board will also be selected as Chairman of the Junior Board and will represent the Junior Board at meetings of the ACEC Georgia Board of Directors and at the annual ACEC Georgia Strategic Planning Retreat.

For Firms:

- Invaluable opportunity to retain your firm's up and coming talent.
- Provide younger employees with opportunities to expand their networks and get exposed to the business side of engineering.
- Allows younger employees to demonstrate their leadership potential.
- Provides your firm with a voice who can share their insights and give feedback on various ACEC Georgia initiatives and programs, ensuring that they continue to provide the highest level of value and ROI for your firm.
- Demonstrating your commitment to the professional development of your firm's next generation of leaders will enhance your ability to attract and retain top talent and help ensure the long-term success of your firm.
