

Eric Ganther, AICP
Transportation Planner
HNTB

Eric Ganther loves planning and implementing a broad range of transportation projects including on-street parking, off-street parking, transit, biking and walking, alt transportation incentives, vehicle electrification, and technical communications. Prior to transportation, Eric had a career in family law where he learned a little too much about the contemporary American family. He has been gay for a really long time. When he was in grad school in Austin he authored the first ever graduate paper on a gay topic in the state of Texas – The History of the Gay and Lesbian Civil Rights

Movement in Austin Texas 1940 – 1980. He then went on to live, work and play in Seattle, San Francisco, New Orleans, and Miami before finding true love, fantastic bike trails, and domestic stability in Atlanta.
