

Lisa Thomas, Program Controls Manager
Atlanta PMC

Lisa Thomas has worked in and with DOTs and transit agencies on projects ranging from highway design to transit and airport construction management, from retail design resource management to tollway program controls. She has a passion for program controls and has supported the implementation of several Program Management Office (PMO)s in Texas, Arkansas, Ontario and Georgia. Her other passion is Equity, Inclusion and Diversity. Lisa has been an activist in the LGBTQ community supporting equal rights and marriage.

She served as member and Chair of the Fort Worth Human Relations Commission advocating for a more welcoming environment. She also served as a member of the Fort Worth Diversity Task Force. Lisa served as a member of the Equality Texas board, a group that educates the public and lobbies the Texas legislature about policies and their effect on Texans of all sexual orientations and gender identities/expressions and is currently serving as part of the Human Rights Campaign Steering Committee for Atlanta with a similar mission.
