Luminis Health on the Eastern Shore

Luminis Health is on a mission to do more. We're breaking down barriers of health and delivering high-quality care across the Eastern Shore and the region. And, we know that we are stronger together.

That's why Anne Arundel Medical Center created a broader health system—so that we can do more for our patients and communities. Like giving you what you need and want when it comes to health care.

Message from the 2022 Queen Anne's County Chamber Chair

I have a confession to make. I was a member of the Chamber long before I got involved in the Chamber because I had no idea what the Chamber did. Through the long bewildering pandemic, I have seen Linda, Tracy and the Board work magic again and again as they worked to help QAC businesses stay alive, find funding, find answers, change directions, promote initiatives, provide support for new ways to keep business moving, and anything else that popped up.

At Lundberg Builders, we are helping Haven Ministries build two "Homes of Hope" and the number of businesses that have donated time, materials or services has been incredible. It is the same kindness that I found when I moved here 45 years ago and started my business. This is an awesome place to live and work.

Looking Ahead: It seems like we lost another year to masks and 6-foot spacing, but 2022 will be a great year for Queen Anne's County. Everybody is ready to get out and do things again, and this is where it happens.

Membership: Please look through this directory, see who is not here yet and invite them to join, attend a mixer, or participate in a fund raiser. Think about the possibilities if everybody finds just one new member.

Operation Save-A-Life: A new QAC Health Department initiative. They will install a box in your office at no charge, with Narcan and other life-saving items, and train your staff. Can't get a better deal than that. More details to come.

Mixers: There is always a crowd of great people to network with each month at the mixers.

Success in 60: Once a quarter we have an opportunity to see an exceptional business at work in our community.

Bottom Line: There is a lot going on and all you need to do is show up.

Brad Lundberg*

President's Message

As we move into 2022, your Chamber is looking to get back to some normalcy. This past year we held several in-person mixers; had a sell-out golf tournament; started an event called "Cash Mob," which became very popular; and reactivated our Success in 60 networking event.

The Chamber celebrated its 40th anniversary in 2020, but COVID delayed the celebration until this year. We decided it would be a great opportunity to not only celebrate our success, but to include all members who were celebrating a milestone anniversary. The event was held at Prospect Bay Country Club with 150 guests in attendance and 71 businesses celebrating a milestone. We also took this opportunity to celebrate our Leader of Excellence, Legacy Award, and Queen Anne's Prosperity Award.

As we prepare the calendar for 2022, we are excited to bring back more in-person events and meetings. We hope you will take the time to attend and support your Chamber. WE'VE MISSED YOU!

Linda Friday

Kent Narrows Waterfront

EXIT 41 KENT NARROWS WEST EXIT 42 KENT NARROWS EAST

Adjacent to both the Chester River and the Eastern Bay, the 995-acre Kent Narrows Waterfront Village region encompasses parts of Chester and Grasonville. The region is located on the western coast of Kent Island and is connected to the Delmarva Peninsula by the Rt. 50 bridge and the Rt. 18 Watermen's Memorial Drawbridge.

The body of water known as the Kent Island Narrows, or to locals, "the Narrows" serves as a main thoroughfare for commercial and pleasure boating traffic. The strait joins the Chester River to the Eastern Bay. Kent Narrows boasts eight marinas, a new boatel, and other high-quality boat storage and repair facilities. It also is popular with those who wish to purchase a boat or yacht, offering several sales and service facilities scattered throughout the business district. Construction is currently underway on a new waterfront Hyatt Place Hotel that is scheduled to open in 2022.

The freshest seafood is here

Home to Harris Seafood and United Shellfish, the area remains a working waterfront and serves as the epicenter of the Chesapeake Bay's thriving seafood processing and commercial fishing industries. The region supports hundreds of water-related businesses and is rich with maritime heritage. Local watermen keep their workboats and fishing boats here in the Waterman's Boat Basin at Heritage Harbor, which is located just across from the seafood restaurants many of them supply.

A popular waterfront destination

The Kent Narrows Waterfront area is best known for award-winning seafood restaurants, world class marinas, waterfront hotels, and as a place to enjoy live music. Its dock-and-dine facilities are popular with the boating crowd; many restaurants and marinas offer free transient boat slips to those passing through. Several waterfront venues are available for small retreats, weddings and celebratory events. Fresh seafood dishes like Maryland Crab Cakes, Crab Soup, Oyster Stew and traditional Maryland Crab Feasts are enjoyed on the waterfront year 'round. Well-known bands and musicians entertain during the boating season and on weekends throughout the rest of the year.

Center for sportfishing

The Kent Narrows is also a popular destination for Chesapeake Bay sport fishing. Some of the most experienced captains manage their fishing businesses from here. Head boats and charters depart daily from the landings and marinas during the boating season.

Stop and stay

A popular stop along the Chesapeake Country Scenic Byway, the area serves as a welcoming spot for visitors to the Eastern Shore. It's home to the Chesapeake Heritage and Visitors Center and to scenic Ferry Point Park. Both places offer opportunities to become acquainted with life on Maryland's Eastern Shore of the Chesapeake Bay, and to enjoy direct access to the waterfront.

The Watermen's Way Heritage Trail map connects visitors to the waterfront attractions. A central feature of the trail is the Maryland Watermen's Memorial and the new Stories of Kent Narrows Maritime Heritage Project. The area also serves as a central location for recreational boating and an entry point to the Cross Island Trail, the new Cross County Connector Trail. The Captain John Smith Water Trail and is home to the Kent Narrows Public Boat Ramp.

Goods and services focus around water-based activities. Seafood processing, hospitality and maritime trades, real estate and financial services generate the bulk of the employment in this area.

The Kent Narrows Waterfront is home to many marinas, boat sales and maintenance businesses. Two Yacht Clubs are also located here. Golf, fishing, antiquing, outlet shopping, and the activities at the Chesapeake Bay Environmental Center are nearby. The area is only 47 miles from Capitol Hill and just 20 minutes from Annapolis — easily accessible to major transportation hubs along the New York/Philadelphia/Baltimore/Washington Corridor.

THE KENT NARROWS FOUNDATION

The Kent Narrows Foundation provides guidance and oversight for the formulation of a strategy to balance new economic growth, community redevelopment, support for the County's fishing and seafood industries, and public access to waterfront activities and amenities. The Foundation is also concerned that environmentally sensitive areas within the Kent Narrows be preserved and contributes to the character of this unique Eastern Shore community.

Today, the Foundation reviews development projects to ensure they are in concert with the Kent Narrows Community Plan that was adopted by the Queen Anne's County Commissioners in 2006. It is active in promoting visitation to the area and in funding, managing and coordinating a variety of projects that serve to improve the district for property owners, residents and visitors.

An Executive Director coordinates the activities of the Foundation and oversees day-to-day operations. The Board generally meets the fourth Tuesday of each month. Meeting notices and agendas are posted on the Queen Anne's County website.

The Foundation's Office is located in the Chesapeake Heritage and Visitors Center at 425 Piney Narrows Road, Chester, MD 21619. For visitor or other information call 410-604-2624 or visit www.kentnarrowsmd.com.

Queen Anne's County Parks and Public Landings

The Parks and Recreation Department consists of five major operating divisions; Parks, Recreation, Airport, Public Landings and Golf Course. The Airport, Public Landings and Golf Course are enterprise divisions. (See Organization Chart) Together these divisions maintain more than 3,113 acres of park property throughout Queen Anne's County. The Parks Division alone is responsible for 22 county parks and 10 county natural resource areas, including 12.5 miles of hiker/biker trails. The Public Landings Division operates and maintains 18 landings, 2 fishing piers and 3 marinas. All county parks operate, on a normal basis, from sunrise to sunset. All public landings are open 24 hours and a permit is required, which may be purchased at vendors throughout the County. These five divisions provide boundless public recreation opportunities by air, land and water. Whether resident or tourist, all enjoy the Parks and Recreation Department's convenient parks, water access areas, golf course and airport that highlight Queen Anne's County as the gateway to the eastern shore.

Recreational programs and special events are offered by the, Recreation Division and include youth sports leagues, trips, special events, enrichment programs and summer camps. The current program schedule is available at www.parksnrec.org.

Landings with boat launching ramps – Centreville, Southeast Creek, Deep Landing, Crumpton, Kent Narrows, Little Creek, Goodhands Creek, Thompson Creek, Shipping Creek and Matapeake Landing.

Batt's Neck Park – This 45 acre park is located on Batt's Neck Road, Stevensville and includes an in-line skating rink, ball fields, multi-purpose athletic fields, playground equipment and lighted football field.

Church Hill Park – This lovely park includes lighted playing fields, playground with shaded playground equipment, a concession stand, restrooms, pavilion and an approximately 2 mile paved walking trail.

Conquest Beach – A 758 acre nature preserve is situated a few miles north of Centreville. The scenic Chester River provides a beautiful and tranquil setting for special occasions and events. A six acre site offers a beach front, pavilion, picnic area with grill, bath houses with restrooms, wheel chair accessible restroom, ballfield, horseshoe pits and a volleyball court. Rental of this site is by reservation only.

Cross Island Trail – A 6.5 mile Hiker/Biker trail extends from Terrapin Nature Area in Stevensville to Wells Cove at the Kent Narrows. This tree lined trail travels through farm fields, wooded areas and over wooden bridges with views of various local creeks and wildlife.

Cross County Connector Trail – This 2 mile Hiker/Biker boardwalk trail extends from the Kent Narrows to Long Point Park.

Crumpton Park – Located on Dudley Corners Road in Crumpton provides a picnic area, playground equipment and ballfield.

Ewing Pond Park – located on Main Street next to the Grasonville Elementary School has a walking trail, gazebo and fishing pier that extends into the pond.

Ferry Point Park – Accessed from the Chesapeake Heritage & Visitors Center, this 41 acre Nature Park on the Chester River has a 2 mile trail, over a wooden bridge and through marshlands with beautiful scenery, which connects the parking lot to the shore line.

Grasonville Park – Located at 301 Perry's Corner Road, Grasonville offers a children's picnic and playground area, two ballfields, tennis/pickleball and basketball courts. This park is home to the Leonard Smith Trail, a 1/3 mile walking trail.

Chesapeake Bay Environmental Center

Located in Grasonville off Perry Corner Road on a 510-acre peninsula, the Chesapeake Bay Environmental Center (CBEC) invites you to experience first-hand the rich biodiversity of the Chesapeake Bay. Operated by the Wildfowl Trust of North America, Inc., since 1979, CBEC is home to over 200 species of birds, including large populations of migratory waterfowl. Over four miles of hiking trails that include observation towers, bird blinds and boardwalks allow visitors to observe wildlife in their native wetland and forest habitats found within the Bay. Kayaks are available for rent, and the Raptor Mews provide an outstanding opportunity to photograph birds of prey.

CBEC offers a wide range of “hands-on, feet-wet” environmental education opportunities for children and adults.

The Center’s Arts and Education building, with its main hall and kitchen facilities, is available to rent for weddings, parties, business meetings, and other group activities.

The Center is open to the public from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Admission is free, but donations are greatly appreciated.

Church Hill Theatre

The Church Hill Theatre, located on Walnut Street in historic Church Hill, is a non-profit art deco community theatre. The building was a town meeting hall from 1929 until 1935, when it then became a movie theatre, closing in the 1970s, but reopened in 1983 when The Friends of Church Hill Preservation, Inc. sought to acquire the building from the town and convert the building into a community theatre. With generous contributions of time and money from local citizens, the Queen Anne’s County Commissioners, the HUD, and state and local Arts Councils, Church Hill Theatre presented its premier season in 1984-85, and the rest is history!

Every year, Church Hill Theatre presents five full productions on its main stage, including classic hits like Oklahoma!, On Golden Pond, Fiddler on the Roof, Noises Off and Witness for the Prosecution along with more contemporary offerings including Doubt, Pippin, 33 Variations, and The Sisters Rosensweig. CHT’s summer theatre camp, Green Room Gang, teaches acting and performance techniques to students in grades 1-12. The theatre also has book-ins with other performance groups and local schools, and provides youth and adult workshops to fill out each season’s schedule.

Now in its fourth decade, the Church Hill Theatre proudly continues to present extraordinary live performances done almost exclusively by a contingent of dedicated volunteers, the backbone of this cultural treasure. CHT embraces arts education and provides training in the arts, ensemble participation, collaboration, teamwork, individual empowerment, and personal growth and knowledge through the arts experience. CHT strives to broaden its volunteer and talent pools and invites anyone interested in enjoying the experience of participation to call the theatre’s business office at 410-556-6003 for more information. In addition, we also encourage those, who may be interested, to become a member of our Board of Directors to help guide the future of CHT. Come and experience the magic of live theatre; work backstage, onstage, or as front of house staff, and as an audience member. There are also production sponsorship opportunities for you or your employer. Come be part of Church Hill Theatre and keep the arts alive on the Eastern Shore!

Queen Anne’s County Arts Council, Inc.

The county seat of Centreville is home of the Queen Anne’s County Arts Council and its facility, the Centre for the Arts. This private, nonprofit organization provides a variety of art events year-round and county-wide. This year, the Arts Council celebrates 43 years of service to the county. The Arts Council presents a variety of public activities including: a concert series, lecture series, artist exhibitions, coffee house, arts-related classes, workshops, and special events.

Reaching a broad audience and providing diversity in programming throughout the county, the Centre for the Arts is proud to provide grants that are available to area schools and non-profit organizations that produce or present arts programs and events. The Community Arts Development (CAD) grant and the Artists in Education (AiE) grant deadlines are in May. The QACAC also makes available several fifteen hundred-dollar scholarships to graduating seniors who will be attending a fine arts program in college.

Individuals and groups interested in learning more about these awards should contact the Centre for the Arts at QACArts@gmail.com, or visit QueenAnnesCountyArts.com to find information on programs, membership, classes, and applications for grants. The Arts Council is supported in part by the Maryland State Arts Council, the Queen Anne's County Commissioners, and other local government contributions.

Membership, donations, classes, and fund-raising activities also contribute to Arts Council funds. Programs and services are always open to the public.

Kent Island Federation of Art

The local Art House offers exhibits and classes, and more. The Kent Island Federation of Arts was formed 58 years ago to bring art exhibits and art classes to our community in Queen Anne's County. In addition to exhibits and classes, KIFA provides art events such as poetry readings, music lessons, art fairs, Plein Aire painting, and lectures with the help of many local volunteers.

Serving artists and our community, KIFA offers:

- Scholarships for children, teens, and adults for KIFA arts classes, and also scholarships toward college expenses for high school students.
- An annual Student Showcase and Open Reception enabling budding artists from our local elementary, middle and high schools to show their work in a professional art gallery setting.
- Exhibits and Gift Shop. A place to show, appreciate, sell, and buy art. FREE and open to the public, the gallery exhibits, gift shop, outdoor fairs, and annual judged competitions present original art available for purchase at reasonable prices. KIFA offers many judged shows and nonjudged shows, and hosts Free Opening Receptions to meet the artists.

- Classes and Workshops. Ongoing art education specially structured for adults and children.
- A place to work in artist studios and Open Studio. Groups or individual member artists may use the facility to gather, paint, critique, discuss problems, share techniques and fellowship.

KIFA's website and weekly email newsletters help members stay abreast of art opportunities at KIFA and throughout the Eastern Shore art community. Membership is open to individuals and families who wish to enjoy art, or exhibit or sell their work, and to those who wish to donate their time or monetary support to the operation of the Art House. Located in the center of Historic Stevensville's Art & Entertainment District at 405 Main Street in Stevensville, KIFA's Art House is open Wednesdays through Saturdays from 1 to 4 pm and from 12 to 3 on Sundays. For more information, call 410-643-7424, email info@kifa.us, or go to www.kifa.us for a complete calendar of events.

QAC Library System

The Queen Anne's County Library's mission is to educate and enrich our community through free access to resources. The library offers wide variety of materials and services to meet the needs of residents of all ages as well as the local small business community.

As a resident of Queen Anne's County you are entitled to a free library card which provides access to traditional library services such as borrowing books, movies, magazines, as well as the use of public access computers and Wi-Fi at each branch. The two branches of the county library system house a physical collection of over 100,000 items including 77,000 books, 8,000 audio books and 15,000 DVD/Blu-ray discs. The library also loans pre-loaded iPads with content specific for toddlers, students and teens. Other services include: free interlibrary loan service, fax services and a cloud based printing service that allows you to send print jobs from any Internet connected computer to a public library printer at either branch. A meeting room is also available at each branch. The room is free of charge to non-profits and available to for profits organizations at a rate of $25 per hour with a two hour minimum.

The library also has a third branch called our virtual branch. As a library cardholder you can access a wide variety of resources and services online such as Maryland's Digital eLibrary which has over 10,000 e-books including adult fiction and non-fiction, young adult and children's titles. A new streaming service called Hoopla Digital, which provides free access to thousands of movies, audiobooks, e-books, music comics from any device. Learn 30 new languages with Rosetta Stone or research your family history with Ancestry Plus and Heritage Quest. BUILDING LIFELONG CLIENTS THROUGH OUR COMMITMENT TO EXCELLENCE

Queen Anne's County Department of Social Services

The mission of Queen Anne's County Department of Social Services is to provide vulnerable individuals and families in Queen Anne's County with the services and support necessary to achieve independence. We envision a quality of life in Queen Anne's County in which individuals and families achieve self-sufficiency and are safe from abuse and neglect. We maintain a work environment that values teamwork, respect, dignity, and effective communication. We are committed to providing high quality service in times of crisis and economic hardship.

The Department of Social Services provides a wide range of services and determines eligibility for numerous benefit programs. Funding comes from various sources. The (state) Department of Human Resources administers the programs and provides Federal/State funding to the local office. The County, along with other organizations, provides additional funding to assist county citizens. County resident, Susan Coppage, LCSW-C, serves as the Agency Director. The Board of Directors is composed of residents with an interest in helping others.

CHILD AND FAMILY SERVICES

Child Protective Services – Is a service provided to assist children believed to be neglected or abused by parents or other adults having permanent or temporary care or custody, or parental responsibility. The priority of CPS is to safely maintain a child in their home and to protect the child from further harm and maltreatment. There are two responses to reports of child maltreatment, Investigative Response and Alternative Response. The investigative response is applied for those reports of child abuse that meet the criteria of high or moderate risk to a child's safety, while the alternative response is applied for reports that meet the criteria of low risk. Both approaches to reports of child maltreatment involve collaborative work with families to seek solutions in assisting the family in gaining the help needed to reduce the risk of further maltreatment.

Services to Families with Children – Provides crisis intervention, referrals to community resources, and counseling in the areas of health, parenting, school adjustment, and family relationships.

Consolidated In-Home Services – Provides family-centered, time limited services to families whose children are at risk of out-of-home placements.

Inter-agency Family Preservation Services – Provides time-limited, intensive family-centered services for families whose children are at risk of out-of-home placements.

QAC HEALTH DEPARTMENT

The Queen Anne's County Health Department offers a wide range of public health services through various program divisions. The health department is funded by the state and county, and is directed by the Health Officer, Dr. Joseph A. Ciotola, Jr. The service divisions are: Administrative Services, Environmental Health Services, Nursing/Clinical Services, Prevention Services and Substance Use Disorder Services.

Environmental Health Services (410-758-2281) conducts inspections and issues licenses and permits. Food service inspections, subdivision approvals, soil evaluations, water well permits and sampling, septic system permits, swimming pool inspections, open burning permits and rabies control are handled by the Environmental Health staff.

Staff assigned to the Health Department's Nursing/Clinical Programs Division (410-758-0720) provide child and adult immunizations, reproductive health services, testing and counseling for HIV, and outbreak investigations. The health department works with state health and environmental officials to investigate a wide range of reportable communicable disease and foodborne illness. The Public Health Emergency Preparedness Program collaborates with sister agencies in the county and across the state to enhance readiness to respond to natural and man-made emergencies and disasters affecting the public's health.

Registered nurses visit all first born infants and case manage children who have medical problems. The Maryland Children's Health Insurance Program assists individuals and families with eligibility for state sponsored health insurance. The Administrative Care Coordination Unit assists Maryland Medicaid recipients with Managed Care Organization enrollment, Medicaid utilization and Ombudsman issues. The Women, Infant and Children Program (WIC) provides nutrition information, breastfeeding support and nutritious foods to pregnant and postpartum women and to children from birth up to five years of age.

County residents over the age of 50 are encouraged to be screened for colorectal cancer and the health department funds the exam and colonoscopy for low-income, uninsured citizens, as well as to provide patient navigation for insured citizens.

The Adult Evaluation and Review Services (AERS) Program provides recommendations and guidance to aged and functionally disabled adults to maintain individuals in the least restrictive environment. The Community First Choice and Community Personal Assistance Services Programs assist individuals requiring help with the basic activities of daily living (bathing, dressing, grooming) and instrumental activities of daily living (light chores, meals, laundry); and have community medical assistance. The Coordination of Community Services Program provides case management services to children and adults who have a developmental disability and live in Queen Anne's County. This program provides a person-centered approach to planning, advocacy and linkage to various community resources designed to maintain the health and safety of the individual, as well as provide opportunities for them to improve their overall quality of life.

Substance Use Disorder Services (410-758-1306) offers outpatient services for those suffering with substance use disorders/addictive disease available from private providers located within the county. Additionally, when appropriate, these providers will make referrals to residential programs outside of the county. The Department of Health is responsible for ensuring that such programs continue to exist within the county while also offering a support group to family members and significant others affected by a loved one's use of alcohol or other drugs.

Prevention Services (410-758-1083) are available for all age levels and community groups. This division provides education about the dangers of drugs and alcohol. Tobacco education and cessation programs are available.

The Administrative Services Division offers birth certificates and death certificates. Employment opportunities are offered through the State of Maryland's job application system: www.dbm.maryland.gov/jobseekers/pages/jobsearch.aspx.

Queen Anne's County's Department of Health serves all clients on a non-discriminatory basis. A sliding fee is available for some services and no one is denied services because of inability to pay.

Day Medical Centers in Queen Anne's County. It is governed by a board of directors and a general membership of dedicated volunteers from the community. The Foundation has the power to receive and administer funds for the Adult Day Medical Centers in Centreville and Kent Island. The Kent Island site opened at the Percy Thomas Center on Love Point Road in May of 1999.

Tax deductible donations and support from interested individuals, businesses or organizations in the community are greatly appreciated. The Foundation receives generous support from the United Way of Queen Anne's County. Fund raising activities include, but are not limited to a Gala Card Party held in November. Call 410-604-3731 for details.

Volunteers from the community are always needed and welcomed. Call Jean Bouscaren or Billie Lloyd to find out more at 410-827-0735 or 410-827-6581.

COMPASS: HERE WHEN YOU NEED US

Since 1985, Compass has been allowing patients to spend their final months the way they choose, guiding loved ones after a life-limiting diagnosis, and showing individuals healthy ways to manage their grief. Today, the organization is a regional provider of hospice care, supportive care, and grief services in Queen Anne's, Kent, and Caroline counties.

Whether serving their patients in private residences, skilled nursing facilities, or Compass' residential centers in Centreville and Chestertown, staff and volunteers are guided by their mission to ensure that individuals facing end of life can live out their days in a full and meaningful way.

What began as a volunteer-run support service, has developed over the last 35 years into a visionary, state-of-the-art organization recognized locally, regionally and statewide for its excellence in quality care and compassion.

Hospice is a unique philosophy of care focused on living well at the end of life. From the time of diagnosis, Compass can help guide you through difficult decisions and assist you as you adjust to changes and anticipate the future. Our interdisciplinary team of physicians, nurses, certified nursing assistants, social workers, spiritual counselors, volunteers, and grief support staff provides comprehensive and support.

Home-based hospice care allows the patient to remain where they feel most comfortable—at home. Home can include a private residence, assisted living or long-term care facilities, or nursing homes.

If remaining at home is no longer possible, Compass has two residential hospice care options. The ten-bed Barnette Center in Centreville, and the four-bed Hospice Center in Chestertown provide a comfortable, home-like, and medically-supportive alternative. A team of experienced and caring professionals provide patients with 24/7 care to support the patients' physical, emotional and spiritual needs.

Hospice is appropriate for anyone facing a life-limiting illness, and our team is trained to meet the needs of all ages, from infants to seniors and every stage of life in between.

Supportive Care is available for those in the late stage of a serious, chronic, or terminal illness. Also known as palliative care, supportive care offers guidance toward living well and as fully as possible. The care team—consisting of a nurse practitioner and a social worker—works closely with existing care providers to help patients find relief from pain and other symptoms related to their diagnosis. This level of care can be provided even if a patient is still pursuing curative treatment or therapies.

Compass also provides a collection of Grief Services programs for the families of patients, as well as members of the community who are grieving the death of a loved one. These services have a common focus—rekindling hope and facilitating healing.

Our grief services team is made up of specially-trained and skilled professionals who guide people of all ages as they navigate the many emotions that accompany journeys of loss and grief. Our grief services are free of charge, and available to all residents of Caroline, Kent, and Queen Anne's counties.

Trauma-certified grief counselors, social workers, spiritual counselors, and trained volunteers provide personalized support to help patients and their loved ones navigate the emotions that come with a serious diagnosis and loss—helping families celebrate life, prepare to say farewell, and learn healthy ways to manage their grief.

Services include virtual and in-person grief support groups for adults, individual and family counseling, specialized grief support groups tailored to those who have lost a child or a partner, or those who have lost a loved one to suicide or overdose, school-based grief counseling and support groups (grades K-12), non-denominational spiritual counseling, Camp New Dawn (an overnight summer camp for children, teens and families), remembrance events and workshops, and a resource library of books, videos and CDs.

Because our care is about quality of life and living with dignity, patients and their families benefit when they have the help of trained professionals to assist with the physical, emotional and spiritual aspects of daily living. Our services are not just for the end-of-life, and many patients report a better quality of life the sooner they are admitted to a support program. Anyone can refer a loved one to Compass, it does not have to be a health care professional.

As a nonprofit organization, Compass relies on financial support from the community to provide services not covered by Medicare, Medicaid and private insurance. Compass is a fully licensed, independent, community-based nonprofit organization certified by Medicare and the state of Maryland and accredited by the Joint Commission. It is affiliated with the National Hospice and Palliative Care Organization and the Hospice and Palliative Care Network of Maryland.

CHESTERWYE CENTER, INC.

The mission of the Chesterwye Center, a private nonprofit organization on Maryland's Eastern Shore, is to assist people with developmental and intellectual disabilities to pursue community membership through employment, community living, natural supports, and developing meaningful relationships in their community.

Chesterwye envisions a community where everyone is more alike than different, a world where people with disabilities work, socialize, live and have valued relationships in the community. Over its more than 60 years of services, Chesterwye has established a niche in the disability field, supporting adults, 18 years and older, identified with significant health, medical, behavioral, or adaptive equipment challenges.

Chesterwye employs a professional direct support staff to provide essential services for residential living, job placement, job preparedness, one-to-one personal care, life skills and exercise programs, sensory motor skills therapies and basic computer training. The goal is to support adults with physical and developmental disabilities to live independent lives in their homes and the community with an appropriate level of support. Chesterwye is funded by the State of Maryland and with private contributions from generous individuals and organizations to the Chesterwye Foundation.

Chesterwye is headquartered at 110 Chesterwye Lane, Grasonville, MD 21638. To find out more, arrange a visit, inquire about volunteer opportunities or learn more about how much your direct financial contribution can do for your Queen Anne's County neighbors at Chesterwye, please contact Executive Director Debra Langseth at 410-827-7048 or debra@chesterwye.com. # Chesapeake College

Chesapeake College continues to grow and change with the times, while staying true to its original mission-serving the educational, economic development and cultural needs of Mid-Shore residents. Chesapeake College, a two-year regional community college which has its main campus in Wye Mills at the intersection of Routes 50 and 213, serves the residents of Caroline, Dorchester, Kent, Queen Anne's and Talbot counties. Students can pursue associate degrees, certificates or letters of recognition in their chosen fields. The college offers a variety of credit and noncredit classes throughout the five-county service area. In addition to the traditional classroom format, classes are also offered online.

Chesapeake College provides a variety of noncredit course offerings designed to expand learning opportunities for the community. The division also helps businesses establish and realize training goals through custom designed programs. Noncredit occupational training and employee professional development are also available. A variety of noncredit certificate programs offer students the opportunity to prepare for careers in high-demand fields. Such programs are ideally suited for adults who wish to change careers.

Chesapeake's Wye Mills campus includes state-of-the-art classrooms, the Learning Resource Center, the Health Professions and Athletics Center, two theatres and a variety of meeting spaces. Also located on the Chesapeake main campus, is the Eastern Shore Higher Education Center where area residents may pursue bachelor's, master's and doctoral degrees through several four-year institutions.

The Country School

The Country School is an independent, coeducational, K-8 school founded in 1934. It offers a challenging program in a nurturing environment with small classes, individual attention, and outstanding teachers as its hallmarks. A traditional, structured, responsive, and age-appropriate curriculum focuses on building basic skills and serves a range of student abilities within a family school context. The school strives to educate the whole child in an atmosphere that fosters high academic standards, instills a love of learning, and provides a solid foundation for future education. Enrichment in the arts, athletics, and co-curricular activities offers additional arenas for individual achievement and leadership. By emphasizing the importance of strong values and character, the faculty consistently reinforces responsible behavior, self-discipline, and positive attitudes. Working in concert, Country School teachers and parents help students develop confidence and competence and reach toward their highest potential.

atmosphere fosters the growth of honorable, responsible citizens for our country and diverse world.

"Teachers are brain changers!" Energized by this belief, the faculty of Kent School has embraced Mind, Brain, and Education Science research-informed practices. A master academic schedule allows adequate instructional time for academic subjects and cross curricular activities. A sustained integration of the arts aids in the transfer of knowledge and provides multiple modalities for assessment. An intentional, spiraling curriculum and interspacing of skills and concepts guides students to deeper learning and mastery. An increased use of formative assessments enables faculty to check on student understanding and mastery of concepts, while empowering students to monitor their own learning.

Kent School has a nationally recognized Chesapeake Bay Studies program. Using the environment as an integrating context allows us to teach core subjects through the theme of Chesapeake Bay Studies. Many local and national resources and partnerships strengthen Chesapeake Bay Studies teaching and learning. Some of those partnerships include The National Aquarium, The Chesapeake Bay Foundation, The Center for Environment and Society at Washington College, The Sultana Foundation, NOAA (National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration) and more. Experiences in and on our area waterways are unique to a Kent School education and provide our students with indelible appreciation for our environment.

Kent School is committed to nurturing the whole child. Their academic, social, emotional, physical, and moral development is at the heart of our student-centered learning. Multi-age programming and a Middle School Student Advisory curriculum allow us to introduce opportunities that support social and emotional growth. Kent School is accredited by the Maryland State Department of Education, and the Association of Independent Maryland and DC Schools (AIMS) and is affiliated with The National Association of Independent Schools (NAIS).

CHARACTER COUNTS!

Most people know what is meant by character. They may not use the same words to define it but typically people describe character as “doing the right thing.”

Today it seems as if you can’t read the newspaper without seeing a story about the latest ethical lapse of a business or one of its employees. However, all of us want to work and play by the Golden Rule and teach our youth about the importance of having good character. With this thought in mind, the Josephson Institute of Ethics founded Character Counts!, a national coalition that includes: individuals, schools, communities, and nonpartisan, nonsectarian nonprofit organizations. The coalition exists to teach youth and adults about the importance of living a life of character.

Character Counts! Views businesses as an important ally in its efforts to encourage and instill character. Businesses recognize that youth are their future workforce; therefore businesses will often work in partnership with programs that positively influence youth.

Who & What is Character Counts! in Queen Anne’s County?

In Queen Anne’s County, Character Counts! is a part of the County’s Community Partnerships for Children and Families. As a result of strong encouragement, the Partnership formed the Queen Anne’s County Character Counts! Advisory Council that works to bring Character Counts! programs into the schools and local County communities.

The cornerstone of Character Counts! is the “Six Pillars of Character:” trustworthiness, respect, responsibility, fairness, caring, and citizenship. The Pillars serve as a platform for teaching values and behaviors associated with good character.

Can Character be Instilled?

An educator once said, “Character building is an ‘inside job.’” Is our character as adults fixed or can we modify it? Character Counts! believes building good character is a dynamic process and that even as adults we can continue to mature and improve our character. Also, as adults it’s important that we teach and model positive character values for youth.

The Josephson Institute for Ethics developed the Six Pillars as a platform for teaching character. They believed those values provided a “comprehensive minimum” and offer common themes that can be taught to youth in the classroom or on the athletic field. In Queen Anne’s County, Character Counts! uses the Six Pillars as a framework for discussions about ethics and values in schools, the workplace and community settings.

How Does Character Counts! Operate in Queen Anne’s County?

Character Counts! is a volunteer initiative. Its volunteers, who are trained to become Character Coaches, visit schools during the year and teach lessons about the Six Pillars. Character Counts! relies on the support of volunteers from the business community to support these activities.

Typically, each coach focuses on one Pillar a month. The coach works with the same class and once a week will do different activities to discuss that Pillar. For example, a coach may read a fable or story to elementary students and then discuss with them how the moral of the story relates to a Pillar, such as respect. A coach in a middle school may bring in a newspaper article about an incident such as a Wall Street scandal and use it as a way to discuss the choices we make and their consequences, when examining a Pillar such as trustworthiness.

It is important that adults reinforce the lessons about each Pillar taught to students. Values don't exist in a vacuum. Ideally they are taught every day and students see their application in the workplace.

The goal of the Advisory Council is for Character Counts! and the Six Pillars to be adopted and practiced by all adults in the community. While the Advisory Council's earliest initiatives have taken place in public schools, the group looks for opportunities to sponsor adult forums and other activities that examine character.

CommUNITY Mentoring

One such opportunity is the newly developed 100K Opportunities Program under the CommUNITY Mentoring Program. The CommUNITY Mentoring office will facilitate the model of multiple pathways by launching the 100K Opportunities Coalition to engage a wide variety of employers and business owners, along with the Workforce Investment Board, in a process of identifying employer needs and opportunities to engage youth in training, internships, apprenticeships, job shadowing, and job mentoring. Employers will be provided with resources such as toolkits, employee retention strategies, hiring processes, and connection to the QAC Collective and other related partners.

Be A Business of Character

Character Counts! encourages you to be a Business of Character. To do this businesses:

1. Serve by example; agree to be a person of character by following and adhering to the Six Pillars of Character.
2. Display at your business a poster and window decal provided by Character Counts!.
3. Fulfill at least one of the Character Counts! commitments listed in the business packet.

Our Mission

We, the Character Counts! Advisory Council, are partnering with the people of Queen Anne's to support and embrace character development in all aspects of our lives.

Our Vision

We, the Character Counts! Advisory Council, envision a community where people of all ages practice the values of Trustworthiness, Respect, Responsibility, Fairness, Caring, and Citizenship.

UNITED WAY OF QUEEN ANNE'S COUNTY

The United Way of Queen Anne's County was established in 1990 in response to public requests for an agency to coordinate community service organizations. Annual fund-raising campaigns have previously raised and distributed more than $1,000,000 over the years.

All costs are kept at a minimum as all members are volunteers, with the exception of the administrator. United Way of Queen Anne's County is governed by a 12 member Board of Directors.

Through their 22 non-profit agencies, the United Way provides ample opportunities for volunteer assistance to the community. Persons interested in volunteering with the agencies or serving on the board with the United Way of Queen Anne's County should call the office number listed below.

For more information on this year's goals, last year's report, a list of agencies and other good information, please check out the United Way website at www.unitedwayqac.org

CHESAPEAKE CHARITIES

Since 2005, Chesapeake Charities has invested more than $9 million in the areas of education, health and human services, the arts, animal welfare, and the environment. By making lasting investments in the Chesapeake Bay region, we are creating a healthier community today and for generations to come. Most of these dollars are raised for and spent on our component funds – the charitable groups that operate under our umbrella.

You have already encountered many of these organizations in your daily life: Adopt-A-Bear, Animal Welfare League, Bully Free Community, Cancer Comfort Angels, Character Counts, Corsica River Conservancy, Historic Stevensville Arts & Entertainment District, Island Dog Park, McArdle School for Early Autism Intervention, Partnering for Youth After School Program, and Tomcat Solutions. These are just a few of the more than 75 community groups we serve.

Chesapeake Charities awards grants to advance charitable efforts, identifies today's and tomorrow's needs, stimulates resources to address those needs, and helps the community prepare for future challenges by creating lasting legacies. A volunteer board of leading citizens oversees the work of the organization and it is staffed by professionals who have expertise in the community's needs. Simply put, we make charity happen.

UME Extension Office

The University of Maryland Extension (UME) provides research-based, informal education to residents of the state of Maryland through generous support from its county partners. Educational programs cover a range of topics, including agricultural production, watershed protection, natural resources, food safety, nutrition and healthy lifestyles, youth development, volunteer development, urban agriculture, and agricultural nutrient management. These educational and training programs provide current, practical information through workshops, seminars, clinics, camps, displays, online courses, events, and newsletters.

The UME represents a partnership of county governments, the University of Maryland College Of Agriculture and Natural Resources, and the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

Listed below are the five areas of focus that University of Maryland Extension, as part of the College of Agriculture and Natural Resources, are either currently working on or plan to work on in the future.

1. Ensure a clean and healthy Chesapeake Bay
  - Design land use management strategies to minimize negative environmental impacts.
  - Develop storm water management technologies to improve water quality.
  - Safely apply fertilizer, manure and other nutrients to protect soil health and water quality.
  - Evolve in the face of climate change to address sea level rise and extreme weather.
  - Create environmentally aware communities and promote increased interest and participation.
2. Establish a healthy food system and ensure global food and nutritional security
  - Encourage entrepreneurship in food production, accessibility, availability and processing.
  - Improve the health and well-being of populations through sharing knowledge of food production, processing, access and consumption.
  - Inform policy based on sound research.
3. Advance innovative, profitable, and sustainable agricultural production systems
  - Increase plant and animal productivity.
  - Improve and conserve soil and water quality.
  - Contribute to the success of agricultural businesses.
  - Prepare the next generation for careers in agriculture.
4. Optimize urban environments through design, green technology, and community engagement
  - Refine and improve the process and perception of urban expansion into rural areas.
  - Improve understanding of agriculture and environmental awareness in urban areas.
  - Improve the performance of built environments.
5. Improve human, animal, and environmental health
  - Create sustainable energy solutions.
  - Decrease chronic diseases and diseases transmitted from animals to humans.
  - Promote and support healthy and livable communities through education.
  - Manage and adapt to climate change.
  - Investigate links between human, animal and environmental health.
  - Analyze environmental and agricultural policy and inform decision makers.

Collagen Red Light Therapy

Do you or a loved one have any achy joints, back pain, arthritis, eczema, psoriasis, low blood flow circulation, stress or sleep disorders?

Visible red light is capable of penetrating the skin to a depth of 8-10mm. Once absorbed, the light energy is converted to cellular energy, stimulating the body's natural processes on a cellular level and kicking off a whole series of metabolic events.

3 Different Layers of High-End Beds

Gold: Reflective bulb system with facial tanner and a maximum tanning time of 15 minutes

Platinum: Sundazzler—Stand-up bed with a maximum tanning time of 9 minutes. T52—Extra large bed with reflective bulbs with maximum tanning time of 10 minutes.

Diamond: High pressure bed uses 99.2% UVA and 0.8% UVB rays to offer you a deeper, darker tan. Maximum tan time is 10 minutes.

CRYOSKIN

Create Your Body.
Create Your Life.

Cryoskin is non-invasive and used for slimming, cellulite reduction, and toning. Clients see results after one session, but best results 5 sessions.

The session lasts for 30-40 minutes and is done manually through a massage technique for the most natural looking results.

Chamber of Commerce Forms

STEVENSVILLE — “We are formed; we exist.” William Cunningham, acting president, was talking about the embryonic but energetic Chamber of Commerce of Queen Anne's County.

Serving with Cunningham, an official of the Maryland National Bank, in acting capacities are Dr. James C. Foor, a Chester veterinarian as Vice President; Lee Willis, a builder and developer as Secretary, and Thomas Roe, a certified public accountant as Treasurer.

Cunningham's announcement was made following the third meeting of the Board of Directors at the Fisherman's Inn, Thursday night.

Serving on the Board are Pat Thompson, county attorney; James Dudley, a Queenstown farmer; Dr. Robert Schleiger, president of Chesapeake College; Oscar Schulz, restaurateur, and Julius Grollman, a businessman.

Cunningham said, “The main emphasis is going to be given in the early stages to membership development.”

In line with the objective, prospective members were invited to write to P.O. Box 303, Stevensville, 21666, or to call 643-3801. Dues will be $25 annually.

A related objective Cunningham said, will be “to take unified action on issues that affect the area.”

The officers and board members will meet again at the Fisherman's Inn, Thursday, June 5, at 8 p.m., when one agenda item is expected to be approval of bylaws.

Town Profiles

BARCLAY

1602 Barclay Rd, P.O. Box 39, Barclay, MD 21607
410.438.6058 • townofbarclay@gmail.com
www.barclaymaryland.com

Barclay is a small crossroads community in agricultural northern Queen Anne's County at the intersection of Maryland Routes 313 and 302. The town is comprised mostly of single family houses sheltering approximately 150 people. It has several family-owned businesses, the largest of which is Delmarva Sash and Door Company, Inc., which was founded in October 1942 and employs approximately 125 people. Other businesses include a retail tire outlet, a lawn and garden equipment repair shop, a burial vault company, an automotive body shop, and a grocery/deli store.

The town is visited several times a week by trains of the Maryland and Delaware Railroad Co. carrying grain, fertilizer, paper, and lumber products. The railroad was integral to local commerce in a former age when the town boasted a passenger depot, a passenger boarding house, and a milk depot that served area farmers.

The community was founded in 1873 as Merrikton and renamed Barclay in 1890. The designation "Town of Barclay" came with the town's incorporation in February 1931. The town's only employee is a part-time clerk / treasurer who works closely with the town commissioners in the daily operation of the town.

CENTREVILLE

With its relaxed lifestyle, gracious residents, amicable merchants, and tree-lined streets, Centreville is a classic example of small-town America. The town was created to implement a 1782 Act of the state assembly that authorized removal of the courthouse and government functions of Queen Anne's County from Queenstown to a more central location.

When suitable land was acquired 10 years later, logic prevailed in naming the place to reflect the site-selection specification. The aberrant spelling "Centre-Ville" stemmed from the adulation of all things French following the Revolutionary War. Actually, the site was chosen not only because of its central location, but also because of the maritime access provided by its proximity to the headwaters of the Corsica River.

Building of the federal-style courthouse began in 1791; the first recorded case was heard there in 1794. The same building-with 19th-century additions- still graces the town square and proudly wears the mantle of oldest courthouse in continuous use in the State of Maryland. Queen Anne's County Historical Society displays other notable examples of 18th century architecture: Wright's Chance (built before 1744) and the Tucker House (Circa 1794). The fine houses built by sea captains near the Wharf also are among the oldest dwellings to be found in Centreville.

History is reflected in the diverse architecture seen along the streets of the town-elegant Victorian homes with their wrap-around porches, neoclassical public buildings, late 19th century commercial rows, late 20th century institutional and government structures, and all the variations and curiosities in between.

Today, Centreville remains the governmental and legal center of Queen Anne's County and the commercial center of the surrounding agricultural community. Busy state Route 213 runs through the town. A business park at the south end of town is progressing nicely. There is a modern library and a comprehensive high school, a middle school, and an elementary school. The people who live and work in Centreville are in step with the world but have managed to preserve the traditional lifestyle of their town. Visit the Town of Centreville website and take a video tour to learn more about this central city.

CHESTER

Chester, the eastern section of Kent Island, extends in width from Kent Narrows to Cox Creek This includes Crab Alley Neck, now called Dominion Road and Cox Neck Road. The name Chester was derived from the areas proximity to the Chester River, on the northeast side of Kent Island. The borders for Chester are Beach Farm, White's Heritage and the Castle Marina areas. When the Chester area was being developed, three small villages existed on the road now called Cox Neck. The original names of the village were not known because they had nicknames such as Hell's Kitchen, Buzzardsville and Tick Town. The most known and familiar family names in the towns were Gardner, Taylor, Tolson, Lewis, Green,

Coursey, Tanner, Phillips and Harris, names still populating the Chester area today. The main road (State Route 18) was called Phillip's Corner for John Phillip, a teacher at the Chester school who owned the southeast corner house and land. Baker's Liquor now stands on that land. Dominion Road, or Crab Alley Road, was known as Benton's Corner for Jim and Mollie Benton who built a house on the southwest corner of Crab Alley Road. Three rural schools were located in Chester, Cox Neck and Dominion. Most of the citizens of Chester went to Kingsley's Chapel located on the corner of Goodhand's Creek and Dominion Road. The chapel was torn down in the 1970s. Today Chester is part of the growing suburbs on Kent Island. Rainbow Plaza, Red Apple Plaza, Old Point Village and Kent Towne Market provide residents with a wide variety of shopping choices and services.

CRUMPTON

Crumpton is located in northern Queen Anne's County, along the Chester River one of the myriad of estuaries of the Chesapeake Bay. The town was originally called McCallisters Ferry, named because of the landing that operated there, when the rope rafts traversed the river connecting the north and south banks. The name was later changed to Crumpton, after local land owner William Crump.

Crumpton was a planned community of the 19th century, with its streets laid out in a grid pattern named after streets in Baltimore. There was the anticipation of much growth, which waned after the turn of the century with the demise of the great steamboat lines.

The Weims Steamboat Line made its way up the river from Baltimore, as did the Chester River Line, with Crumpton being as far up the river as they went, "the end of the line", so to speak. One hundred fifty years ago the deep water channel of the Chester River went all the way to Crumpton. Nowadays, it extends only to the Chester River Bridge at Chestertown.

The "main drag" Broad Street, was once a busy commercial thoroughfare. Many of the present day homes still reflect that time, with their historic storefronts intact. The majority of homes were built in the mid to late 19th century in the Italianate style. One such home, 325 Broad Street, is a great example of such architecture complete with a general store and widows walk. The home at 406 Broad Street, more commonly known as "Red Shutters" is believed to be the oldest existing home in town, built in the early 19th century with bricks made from crushed oyster shells.

During the late 19th and early 20th century Crumpton was considered a scandalous town due to the local and national temperance movement. It has been reported that during prohibition Crumpton was the scene of local raids on speakeasies. During such raids the "Feds" chose not to include the local authorities due to their involvement in such activities.

Today Crumpton sits as a sleepy little waterfront town, with one store, a post office, and a fire house. Just outside town is Crumpton's claim to fame, Dixon's Furniture Auction, or as the locals say "Crump'n Sale". This auction house is one of the largest outdoor auctions on the east coast. Every Wednesday from 7am - 7pm one can find anything from antique rugs, to rare books, and large antique furniture. Inside the sale barn, there are many vendors selling locally grown produce, and an Amish market.

Crumpton is a small town steeped in local history and good old fashioned Eastern Shore friendliness.

CHURCH HILL

324 Main Street, PO Box 85, Church Hill, MD 21623
410.758.3740. • Fax 410.556.6635
townofchurchhill@atlanticbb.net
www.churchhillmd.com

Church Hill is a quaint little town dating back to colonial days. Nestled in beautiful farming countryside, it has been a quiet, friendly place throughout the years. It is believed that Church Hill was named for the historic St. Luke's Episcopal Church (Circa 1732), which sits atop a hill overlooking the center of town. Take a video tour of the town.

Church Hill had, at one time, as many as six churches in the town, but the name is most likely derived from St. Luke's which sits on top of the hill at the foot of Walnut Street. Incorporated in 1876.

The community began forming in the late 1600s but was not incorporated until 1876. By that time, there was a lengthy list of businesses located there, from shoemaker to butcher to physician and more. But the Civil War and the world wars took their tolls. Today, Church Hill is considered a "bedroom community" with only a few businesses remaining.

The town's history can be read in its buildings. The Mill, known as "Collins Mill" when the original structure was built in 1698, is the site of one of the earliest documented water mills on the central eastern shore. It played a significant role in the agricultural economy of the county until it ceased to operate during World War II. Tradition holds that the bricks used to construct St. Luke's Church were unloaded near the mill after their transportation from England.

The Mill Residence (Circa 1765), originally part of the Mill property, is probably the oldest building still standing in Church Hill. The Town Hall, formerly a store, a butcher's shop, and a private residence, was built in the early part of the 19th century. A portion of the town's elementary school was originally a high school built in 1916. The homes exhibit a variety of architectural styles, from Colonial, to Victorian, to Modern.

The town is best known today perhaps for its Church Hill Theatre, located in a converted 1930s movie house. Local and repertory players offer performances of classic theater, Shakespearean plays, musicals, and children's plays. Residents showcase their town's peaceful country atmosphere as an added attraction for visiting theater-goers.

GRASONVILLE

Once home to country stores and watermen's boats, extended families and family farms, the town of Grasonville has grown into a thriving suburb. Where there were once seafood packing houses and shanties, there are now restaurants and pubs boasting some of the best seafood, steaks and nightlife in the state of Maryland. The town of Grasonville has changed its name three times. At one time the town was known as Ford's Store, after one of its grocery stores. In another era, the town was called Winchester and finally, the name Grasonville, after Governor Grason, former governor of Maryland.

A key tourist attraction in Grasonville is the famed Kent Narrows area, a destination for travelers from all over the Mid-Atlantic region.

The Kent Narrows Development Foundation has been instrumental in helping to revive the area. The group has created ample parking and lights as well as designing a bike and pedestrian path around the area. Colorful signs point the way to attractions such as wildlife areas and marinas. Grasonville is also home to the 510-acre Chesapeake Bay Environmental Center, which is devoted to education and preservation of the wetlands and its inhabitants. The main artery of Grasonville, State Route 18, thrives with local businesses featuring flowers, antiques and furniture. The town is also home to the Grasonville Community Center, which is available for club meetings and organizations.

MILLINGTON

The Town of Millington, a municipal corporation under Maryland law, was originally chartered as a town by the Maryland General Assembly in 1798. The town was incorporated in 1890. Millington grew up as a small village located on the Chester River sharing shores with both Kent and Queen Anne's County. The land on which it is located was settled in the late 17th century. Over the years the name of the town as changed originating as Head of Chester, to Bridgetown around 1724, and finally in 1818 to become known as the Town of Millington.

Prior to the Civil War, the Town of Millington was a busy seat of commerce and agriculture. Millington was located in the center of a large corn, wheat, and fruit growing area. Downtown commerce included a hardware store, clothing and supply shops, a bank, hotels, and mills. Today, Millington's commerce includes a hardware store, pharmacy, dog groomer, grain mill, wholesale seafood market, grocery store, liquor store, pizza shops, and a fine dining restaurant.

In the late 1860s the railroad was constructed connecting Wilmington and Philadelphia to Millington and points further south. The Kent and Queen Anne's Railroad enabled Millington to become one of the largest peach shippers in the county for some time.

Today Millington is still a small town with strong echoes from the past. Millington is a walkable, self-contained town with a clear rural character and atmosphere. The town has a public park and a skateboard park within the town limits. The Millington Ballfield Association in conjunction with the Millington Lions Club, have a facility on the Kent County Board of Education property bordering close to the town limits. The Millington Swim Club facility with a swimming pool and tennis court is located partially in the Town limits and is owned and operated by the Kent County Parks and Recreation for public use.

There is also the head of the Chester River running through the Town of Millington offering lovely public fishing areas with perch spawning in the spring and catfish, spot, sunfish, yellow perch and the occasional striped bass throughout the remainder of the season. At it's water-front park, the Town of Millington offers a canoe and kayak launch, fishing piers, and a nature trail.

PRICE

Always known as Price or Prices Station, it is a laid back, peaceful village rich in history and country charm. It is one of several small towns which developed as a direct result of the construction of the Queen Anne's and Kent Railroad, Division of the Pennsylvania Railroad. Price was established in 1871, when the Pennsylvania Railroad extended its lines through this point on its route to Centreville. The town's name was derived from the surname of a prominent individual connected with the establishment of the railroad station and post office, named Mordecai Price. Price has rural and tranquil settings of beautiful farmland, rich in agriculture. It is centrally located off U.S. Highway 301 and Rt. 405 East. The area also boasts locations for wild game hunting and is centered in the midst of a rapidly growing chicken industry. It is also home to horse stables, race horses and grazing cows. The town itself has a Community Building Center (once an elementary school) for community activities and annual events, two churches, the Price Bethany United Methodist Church and Price Apostolic Church. There have been booming businesses in Price throughout the years. Today new young families are making their home in Price. You may be just in time to see the train passing through and listen to its whistle.

QUEEN ANNE

P.O. Box 365, Queen Anne, MD 21657
410.364.9229 • Email: townqa@comcast.net

The Town of Queen Anne, first known as Morgansville, literally grew from a one and a half story building of 1850, to a thriving, neighborly community of home lovers, enjoying the "small town" life. The Pennsylvania Railroad purchased a site for a railroad station from Mrs. S.J. Barton in 1878, thus creating the town of Queen Anne. It became a commercial center for the Maryland, Delaware and Virginia Railroad. The Tuckahoe River winds lazily through Queen Anne on its way to the Choptank River. It was once used by scows to haul grain from down river to the railroad. Today, Queen Anne can best be described as a pleasant, quiet town situated in two counties (Queen Anne's and Talbot) and bordering a third (Caroline). The entrance to Tuckahoe State Park is located nearby at the intersections of Route 404, 480 and Eveland Road. The Town also features Roosevelt Park, providing a site for family activities with playing fields, picnic tables and playground equipment.

QUEENSTOWN

Queenstown, situated along Queenstown Harbor a tributary of the Chester River, was named after Queen Anne of England when it was first established in 1707. It served as the county seat of Queen Anne's County until 1782, when it was moved to Centreville.

During the War of 1812, Queenstown was the only town, in Queen Anne's County to be attacked by the British. The attack took place in 1813, at Bowlingly, a historic estate and manor home. The home was badly damaged at that time, but survived, and is now a private residence.

One notable building in the town is the original court house, dating back to the early 1700s. This simple structure was restored in the late 1970s, and is now a historic attraction for those who want to take a peak back into our colonial history.

In 1820, a fire destroyed almost the entire town. But, rebuilding took place. By the 1850s, Queenstown was a stop for the steamboats that were running up and down the Chester River, delivering goods, and passengers from Baltimore.

A stop in Queenstown means a stop at Potter's Pantry. This is where to get a good, hearty sandwich, soup, or sub that is made fresh and served with good old fashioned local hospitality.

The Prime Outlets are located in Queenstown. This shopping center has been recently remodeled and features new retailers, like Banana Republic, Chico's, Coach, Gap, and Tommy Hilfiger, among many others. Visitors from all over the region make this a stop to shop, along the main route to vacation destinations like Ocean City, MD and Rehoboth Beach, DE.

Queenstown Harbor Golf Links, a beautiful course that's open to the public, and offers two 18-hole courses is also located here. The River Course has been rated #2 by Golf Digest in "The Best Public Golf Courses in Maryland." The sunsets on the Chester River are calmly breathtaking. There is also a venue for weddings and other events.

The town has expanded and experienced new development due to its strategic location just 10 miles from the Bay Bridge. Some of the very best little developments are tucked off the beaten path, and many are along the water.

Queenstown has lots to offer, it's worth doing a little bit of exploring to see if there's a place here that you'd like to call home.

STEVENSVILLE

Once known as Stevens Adventure located on a 1694 grant to Francis Stevens, the historic town is now a charming village blending commercial and residential communities well. It also is home to Kent Island High School. Stevensville was the busy Gateway to the Eastern Shore prior to the Bay Bridge opening in 1952. The Kent Island Heritage Society (kentislandheritagesociety.org) has carefully restored the gambrel roofed Cray House (c.1800), the bank built in 1905, post office from 1877, and a train station that was built in 1902 when the Queen Anne's Railroad began operating from Love Point. The historic 1880 site of Christ Episcopal Church (founded in 1631) is located on Main Street. The Heritage Society opens five historic Stevensville sites for tours on the first Saturday of the month from April through November, and hosts group tours throughout the year. Kent Island Day is held the third Saturday of May every year. The Kent Island Federation of Art (www.kifa.us) is based in Stevensville and the Stevensville Arts and Entertainment District (stevensvilleartsandentertainment.org) hosts events throughout the year.

SUDLERSVILLE

200 S. Church Street, PO. Box 116, Sudlersville, MD 21668
410.438-3465 • townoffice@townofsudlersville.org
www.townofsudlersville.org

Sudlersville, located south of the Chester River, had its beginnings in 1740 when Kent Island land owner Joseph Sudler purchased 800 acres there. On the property was Sledmore, a homestead built in 1713. Since that time to the present Sudler descendants have retained ownership of the property. By 1811, a post office was established, and Dixon's Tavern was opened at the village of Sudler's Crossing, which was later renamed Sudlersville.

The architecture of the town reflects an agrarian society with more of a basic farmhouse style prevalent at the turn of the century. Sears Kit Homes are also common, due to the nearby railroad. There are also some homes of the late Victorian era, in the Queen Anne and East Lake styles.

Just on the outskirts of town is Dudley's Chapel, the oldest Methodist Church in Queen Anne's County, as well as one of the oldest cemeteries in the area. The Sudlersville Memorial Library is housed in what was once the Southern Methodist Church. During the Civil War period local citizens were divided between the southern sympathizers and union supporters. That congregation later integrated with what is now Calvary-Asbury United Methodist Church, one block over.

The town park has walking trails, a pavilion, and multiple athletic fields. The park is open and free to all during daylight hours.

Sudlersville commemorates the birthplace of Baseball Hall of Famer Jimmie Foxx with a bronze statue at the four corners of town. The Sudlersville Betterment Club maintains a town history museum in the restored train station.

Sudlersville and the areas surrounding it, still retain their rural agricultural atmosphere, and offer an escape from the urban hustle and bustle.

TEMPLEVILLE

P.O. Box 25, Templeville, MD 21670
410.482.8680 • Email: bhe@atlanticbb.net

Templeville is a small country village of less than 100 inhabitants. It lies along Maryland Route 302; its buildings on the north side of the road are in Queen Anne's County and those on the south side are in Caroline County. At about the center of town, Route 454 branches off to the south into Caroline County; several homes line the western side of that road.

Residents look out of their windows upon fields being planted in the spring and harvested in the fall. They can take their families fishing or for a picnic in the town park. The store and post office are just a short stroll away.

Just outside the town are several old cemeteries. One that dates back to the 1700s is the resting place of members of the Temple family for whom the town is named

WYE MILLS

Wye Mills is a quiet village that sits in both Queen Anne's and Talbot Counties. It's the site of the legendary Wye Oak, the oldest white oak which was toppled during a thunderstorm in June 2002 at the age of 460 years old. Also noteworthy is the Wye Grist Mill, built in 1682 and the oldest operating grist mill in Maryland. The mill is open to the public from April to November, Thursday to Sunday. Demonstrations are provided on the first and third Saturdays, and flour that has been milled can be purchased.

Another unique local food item to be found here is Orrell's Maryland Beaten Biscuits. A beaten biscuit is a Maryland tradition, and is made by placing dough on a wooden slab, and beating it for at least 30 minutes with an axe handle, a wooden club or a rolling pin. The finished product is a chestnut sized biscuit that is served with soups.

The Wye Mills School House is a historic structure dating back to 1800, and said to be the first public school on the Eastern Shore. It's a one and a half story brick house with one room and a loft.

Chesapeake College, established in 1965, is located on the outskirts of Wye Mills. The college offers a two year associates degree program, numerous certificate programs and continuing education for the local workforce. Chesapeake College has been continuously expanding to serve the higher education needs to several counties in the region. The Todd Performing Arts Center on the campus offers concerts, symphonies and plays, and the facility can be rented by groups for events.

Along the Wye River there is the Wye Landing, a public boat launch for access to the Chesapeake Bay for local boaters. There is also a public park with picnic tables, offering a site for a family picnic, or a nice stop for a lunch break.

There are newer residential developments on the outskirts of town. Close access to Route 50 makes it a good place for commuters to settle down.

Fisherman's Inn
and CRAB DECK
RESTAURANTS

Fisherman's Crab Deck
The crabs are spicy and fat, the drinks cool, and the sunsets spectacular. Fresh fish, shrimp, scallops, and clams are steamed, grilled, or fried and served in a relaxed but exciting tropical atmosphere; open on all sides right at the water's edge. Try a fresh squeezed Orange Crush, Margarita or Pina Colada at our waterfront bar.

FishermansInn.com, 410-827-8807 | CrabDeck.com, 410-827-6666

Fisherman's Inn
A dining landmark since 1930, our menu features only the freshest crabmeat for our award winning crabcakes, fish, oysters, shrimp, and clams. For the landlubber, we have Filet Mignon and slow roasted Prime Rib. Join us in the NAUTI MERMAID BAR for craft beers, a chilled bourbon or artisanal cocktail.

Chamber Member Benefits

Event Sponsorship — There are a number of sponsorship opportunities available to members in one or more of the events hosted by the Chamber. Being a sponsor can help you increase your presence in the marketplace through name recognition. There are many levels of sponsorship and are open each year for the Chamber's Golf Tournament, Sporting Clay Tournament, and Pinnacle Business Awards.

Business Directory — The annual directory is a great opportunity to purchase an ad that will be seen all year by residents and by all newcomers to the county. As part of the annual membership, Chamber members are listed alphabetically, categorically and by contact in the directory. The listing both by category and alphabet are published on the Chamber's web site with member's e-mail and web site addresses.

Breakfast & Business After-Hours — On the third Thursday of each month the Chamber has an after-hours mixer or a breakfast. Sponsoring one of these get-togethers brings many prospective clients to your business. Attending meetings helps you become known and gives exposure to your business.

Monthly E-Newsletter — The Chamber publishes a monthly newsletter that provides information of interest to Chamber members as well as information and articles about our member businesses. We welcome your articles and announcements. The newsletter is distributed electronically.

Business Referrals — The Chamber staff recommends only Chamber members when asked who to contact for goods or services.

Eblast Service — Time and money can be saved by using the Chamber eblast service. Members may send a message, flyer, announcement to over 1,400 email addresses for a small fee. This a great way to reach your fellow members without the time and money it costs to produce a regular mailing.

Internet Exposure — All members are listed on the Queen Anne's County Chamber of Commerce website in the online directory. Your address and web site are established as links from the Chamber's site which can mean an increase in customers.

Notary Services are available.

Member Mailing Labels — The Chamber's membership list is available on labels for a small fee to any interested Member.

Member Hot Deals — Members receive discounts on goods and services from other members through the buying service program.

Chamber Logo & Decal — The Chamber member logo is available in digital format to any member in good standing who would like to use the logo in promotional materials or on their business correspondence. We will also be happy to provide you with additional Chamber member decals for your business location and work vehicles.

One Voice for Business — Through the united front of the Chamber, Queen Anne's County businesses have a stronger voice in helping to shape governmental policy and legislation.

MEET THE NEW YOU

The Old You was all about working hard, handling your responsibilities and providing for others. The New You is waiting on Kent Island. We are proud to announce that we have entered our second phase of construction at Kent Island, which means that you have the opportunity to tour our no-maintenance luxury condo models, choose from fourteen distinct single-family home designs, and tour our sensational 24,000 sq. ft. clubhouse, the Chester House, which will open in Summer 2022.

Single-Family Homes From The Upper $400s Luxury Condominiums From The Mid $400s

Ready to Meet The New You?
Phase II Now Open.
How soon can you be here?
