

DEVELOP A TALENT PIPELINE

MURROW COLLEGE INTERNSHIP PROGRAM

With the right internship program, you can develop young talent and lay a foundation to recruit brilliant young minds to work for your company. When you partner with the Edward R. Murrow College of Communication, you gain access to world-class future communication professionals.

WE'VE EVOLVED WAY BEYOND COFFEE.

When you develop and work with interns, you can foster career-readiness in a talented, enthusiastic student who could one day become a major player for your company.

INCREASE VISIBILITY

Murrow College promotes internship opportunities to qualified students on our flagship Pullman campus, and co-campuses in Everett, Vancouver and Global.

CLOSE THE SKILLS GAP

When you provide a student with real-world experience in an internship, you prepare them to hit the ground running when they start working at your company.

FRESH PERSPECTIVE

Interns are more than an extra set of hands! New people bring novel perspectives, specialized strengths and skill sets that can break up the status quo.

READY TO GET STARTED?

From top-notch writing to social media maintenance, event coordination, video editing and more, a Murrow College intern is a sustainable, cost-effective way to lighten your workload, gain new insights and give back to the community.
