

CALIFORNIA
CANNABIS
INDUSTRY
ASSOCIATION

2019

Cannabis Event Vendors: Dos and Do Nots

Produced by the CCIA Events Committee

Chairpersons

- Dr. Juli Crockett, MMLG
- Pamela Epstein, Esq., LLM

EST. 2013

CALIFORNIA
CANNABIS
INDUSTRY
ASSOCIATION

Cannabis Event Vendors: Dos and Do Not

CCIA Events Committee, Chairpersons Dr. Juli Crockett & Pamela Epstein, Esq., LLM

Do

- Confirm that the event organizer and event itself are properly authorized and licensed at local and state levels.
 - Ask to see and verify Permits and Authorizations on local and state sites (§ 5600.a)
- Work with the event organizer as early as possible and ensure that the event organizer properly registers your licensed entity as a vendor with the BCC at least 72 hours before the event.
 - BCC form for the event's list of vendors looks like this.
- Confirm that the event is adequately insured and that your business is covered by the event insurance plan. Obtain a copy of the policy.
- Be aware, and conduct an in-depth review of, all conditions of your participation in the event, including security requirements and the designated area in which you are to conduct retail sales or have your products purchased via retail designated area.
 - Security requirements (§ 5601.j)
- Comply with regulatory record retention provisions, including keeping records in a manner that allows the records to be produced for the regulatory agencies in either hard copy or electronic form.
 - Ask to see the Standard Operating Procedure (SOP) produced for the event to which you must adhere
 - Record retention: (§ 5600.d)
- Ensure that the event has procedures for adequate age-verification at the entrance to the cannabis event. (§ 5602.a)
- Ensure the daily limits are respected for single adult use cannabis customer for a single day. (§5602.n)
 - 28.5 grams of non-concentrated cannabis (§5409)
 - 8 grams of cannabis concentrate
 - 6 immature cannabis plants
 - Refer to section (§5409) for more information
- Ensure that cannabis goods you plan to sell on-site are transported to the event by a licensed distributor or licensed microbusiness with distribution allowance in compliance with local and state laws. (§ 5602.g)
- Ensure that each shipment of your cannabis and cannabis goods to the event are properly manifested and does not contain any prohibited items such as alcohol and tobacco. (§ 5602.g)
- Ensure that all cannabis goods for sale at the event comply with local and state regulatory requirements for retail sale of cannabis goods, including track and trace requirements and packaging and labeling.

- Track and trace: (§ 5602.j)
- Prominently display your temporary cannabis event location number and state license within plain sight of the public. (§ 5600.d)
- Ensure that all cannabis and cannabis goods for sale at the event are stored in a secure, locked container that is not accessible to the public. (§ 5602.h)
- Provide updates to the event organizer and/or event staff regarding the amount of cannabis good sold, as requested.
- Ensure all local taxes are paid according to the event jurisdiction's sales tax requirements.

Do Not

- Engage in any commercial cannabis activity including retail sales without the appropriate local and state licenses or outside the designated retail sales area. (§ 5602.b)
- Conduct commercial cannabis activity outside of your assigned area, as designated in the event premise diagram.
- Conduct mobile sales activities via wagon, cart, or similar means. (§ 5602.c.2)
- Serve or sell alcohol on the same licensed premises as cannabis. (§ 5601.g)
- Violate any applicable local smoking laws. (§ 5603.d)
- Leave any stored cannabis goods unattended at any time. (§ 5602.h)
- Provide free cannabis or cannabis goods to ANYONE (§ 5411.a)
- Establish a compensation agreement for your participation with the event organizer and understand if this triggers Financial Interest Holder disclosure with BCC.
- Prevent local or state agency regulators from entering and inspecting your records and/or retail sale designated area. (§ 5800.a.1)

DISCLAIMER

The information provided in this guidance document is not intended to constitute legal advice and therefore should not be relied upon as such. Instead, this document is exclusively intended for general informational purposes only. This document may not constitute the most up-to-date legal or other information. Use of this document does not create an attorney-client relationship between the reader and any individual at CCIA, or CCIA as a whole. Event venue owners or managers should contact their attorney to obtain advice with respect to any particular legal matter.

No reader of this document should act or refrain from acting on the basis of information on this site without first seeking legal advice from counsel in the relevant jurisdiction. Only a retained attorney can provide assurances that the information contained herein – and your interpretation of it – is applicable or appropriate to your particular situation. For specific legal needs, please contact an attorney. Should you need an attorney recommendation, CCIA has several resources. Please contact info@cacannabisindustry.org for more information.