

Bismarck Mandan Professional Women in Building

The National Association of Home Builders (NAHB) Bismarck Mandan Professional Women in Building Council (BMPWB) represents women who are actively involved in all aspects of the building industry as builders, developers, remodelers, suppliers, architects, marketing experts, interior designers, realtors, mortgage lenders and trade contractors. The Council is an affiliate of the NAHB PWB Council, and membership in the HBA is required.

Our Mission:

The BMPWB are dedicated to promoting, enhancing, and supporting women within the construction industry as well as the next generation of industry professionals.

We do this by:

- Providing professional development resources
- Encouraging career development within the industry.
- Promoting and supporting active involvement in the political and legislative process.
- Promoting and supporting community involvement.
- Providing resource information and support for members.

How much does it cost?

Dues are $75 per year for an individual membership. *Must also be a primary contact for BMHBA membership or additional fees may apply.

How do I join?

If you are interested in joining the organization you can fill out and submit the application provided in this Brochure, or feel free to contact Kelli Thompson at kelli@fabricatorsunlimited.com for more information and applications.
