

For Release Time 1:15pm
April 6, 4-6-2023

Cody Country Chamber of Commerce Announces New CEO

EJ House to lead Cody Country Chamber of Commerce Forward

Cody, WY— April 6, — This week at the Cody Country Chamber of Commerce Ambassadors Meeting, the Cody Country Chamber of Commerce announced its new CEO. EJ House will assume the duties of former CEO, Tina Hoebelheinrich

EJ served a rewarding career in the US Air Force. Following his military service, EJ worked in federal civilian service and private sector business financial services and real estate. He has a deep background in entrepreneurial initiatives, business consulting, operations management, and technology security.

EJ completed private sector education in aviation technology and business administration. He completed his graduate studies in business at Webster University. He completed his advanced military and command leadership studies at Air University which is the educational institution of the U.S. Air Force.

He is a dedicated veteran advocate and community builder having served in roles for the American Legion, Boy Scouts of America, and County Elections in the metro Washington, D.C. area. He is a dedicated supporter of the Colonial Williamsburg Foundation, Commemorative Air Force, Canine Companions for Independence and the National D-Day Memorial.

For more information, press only:

Andre Parsons
307.587.2777
marketing@codychamber.org

For more information on the Cody Country Chamber of Commerce:

www.codychamber.org