

Parking and Transportation Guidelines: Harold Stassen Building Skjegstad Conference Room

Parking

Lots U and W next to the Harold Stassen Building are limited to handicap parking and parking for customers of the Minnesota Department of Revenue and Minnesota Office of Administrative Hearings.

The attached map shows the location of the Centennial Ramp, near the intersection of Cedar St. & Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Blvd. The Orange Level is the top uncovered level with 180 metered stalls and space to accommodate large vehicles. Access the Orange Level from Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Blvd.

To get to the Stassen Building after parking, follow the sidewalk along the north side of the Freeman Building around to the front. There is a marked crossing over the light rail tracks and Robert Street.

If you have questions about parking, please call the Department of Administration Parking Division: 651-201-3062.

Bicycles

There is a bicycle rack conveniently located outside the Stassen Building, between lots U and W. Another bicycle rack is located outside the Freeman Building, across Robert Street from the Stassen Building. Bicycle rack locations are shown on the attached map.

Public Transportation

The METRO Green Line – Robert Street Station is directly across the street from the Stassen Building. Bus routes 68 and 71 stop just outside the Stassen Building on Jackson Street.
