The minutes of such meeting shall be distributed to the officers of the association within 10 days of such meeting.

ARTICLE IX

NOMINATIONS, ELECTIONS, TERMS OF OFFICE, AND VACANCIES.

Section 9.01 Nominations.

A standing Nominating Committee composed of the immediate Past President, who will serve as Chair, the State Director, the two District Directors on the Executive Committee and one member at large appointed by the incoming President for a two-year term, coinciding with the President’s term of office, shall work on a year-round basis to secure candidates to fill vacancies in elective offices. The Nominating Committee shall prepare a slate of nominees to be presented to the Convention. This slate shall be printed in the last issue of the FREA Bulletin published before the meeting of the Delegate Convention. Nominations may be made from the Convention floor provided prior consent of the nominees has been obtained.

Section 9.02 Elections.

Election of Officers shall be held at the Delegate Convention. A majority of the votes cast shall be necessary for election. In cases where there is but one nominee for an office, a voice vote may be taken. If there are two or more nominees for an office, the vote shall be by ballot.

Section 9.03 Terms of Office.

The President and the President-Elect shall serve for a term of two (2) years or until successors shall have been elected and take office and shall not be eligible to succeed themselves. One District Director shall be elected from each of the ten (10) Districts. Directors for each of Districts I through V (Group I) shall be elected one year and Directors from each of Districts VI through X (Group II) shall be elected the next year. All Directors shall be elected to a full two-year term and shall be eligible for reelection to one (1) additional term only.

Section 9.04 Vacancies.

In the event of a vacancy in the office of President, the office shall be filled by the President-Elect, supported by the FREA Council of Past Presidents. Should the President-Elect be unable to serve or should any other vacancies occur among the officers, they shall be filled by the Executive Committee with the approval of the Board of Directors until the end of the unexpired term.

Section 9.05 Removal from Office

The Executive Committee shall have the ability to remove any officer, when in the judgment of the board, this action is in the best interest of the Association. The cause of termination shall be defined as: 1) Dishonesty or fraudulent acts adversely affecting the Association or its representation, business or business relations. 2) Conviction of a felony or of any crime involving moral turpitude, fraud or misrepresentation. 3) Any willful or intentional act having the effect of injuring the reputation, business or business relations of the Association.

MEETINGS.

ARTICLE X

Section 10.01 Delegate Convention.

There shall be at least one (1) Delegate Convention during each Presidential term. Members are invited to attend the Delegate Convention and shall have all the rights and privileges of the Delegates except the right to vote. The purpose of this meeting is to elect officers and to conduct such other business that may be brought before the Convention.

In the event that a Delegate Convention is held only once every two years, Electronic Participation may be used to conduct the necessary business in the off year. Any action required or permitted to be taken at a Delegate Convention may be taken by means of electronic communication. Only delegates have the right to vote. Participation in a meeting by these means shall constitute presence in person at a meeting. Any action taken by the Board of Directors during the meeting under this section shall be duly recorded among the minutes of the proceedings of such meeting. The minutes of such meeting shall be distributed to the officers of the association within 10 days of such meeting.

Section 10.02 Other Meetings.

Other meetings of the Delegate Convention may be called at the discretion of the Executive Committee.

Section 10.03 Leadership Workshop Meetings.

Leadership Workshop meetings may be held when needed, as determined by the Executive Committee.

Section 10.04 Time and Place of Meetings.

The time and place of the Delegate Convention and the Leadership Workshop shall be determined by the Executive Committee.

ARTICLE XI

DELEGATE CONVENTION.

Section 11.01 Delegates.

The delegates to the Delegate Convention shall be the FREA Officers, Assistant District Directors, Chair of the FREA Standing committees, the Necrology Chair, Delegates from local units, Coordinators from counties where there is no local unit, and the Chair of the FREF Board of Trustees.

Section 11.02 Local Unit Delegates.

Each unit is entitled to have at least one delegate to the Delegate Convention, who should be the newly elected President. Units shall be entitled to additional delegates according to the following chart:

FIGURING DELEGATES

1	-	50	=	1

Section 11.03 Date to Determine Number of Delegates.

FREA Membership date for determining number of delegates shall be set forth in the Standing Rules.

Section 11.04 Local Unit Alternate Delegates.

In the event of the inability of a Local Unit Delegate to execute his/her appointed duties during the Convention, the local unit delegation shall appoint an alternate delegate who shall assume all of the rights and privileges of the regularly appointed delegate, including the right to vote.

ARTICLE XII

COMMITTEES.

Section 12.01 Authorization.

As needed to carry out the purposes of the Association, the Board of Directors or the Executive Committee is authorized to establish committees in addition to those specifically provided in Sec. 12.02 of the Bylaws.

Section 12.02 Standing Committees.

Membership	Legislative
Volunteer Services	Nominations
Information Services	Bylaws

Section 12.03 Chair.

The President shall appoint the Chair of all committees and activities. Chair of standing committees shall serve for two-year terms coinciding with the term of the President who appoints them. Chair of ad hoc committees shall serve for the life of the committee or at the pleasure of the President.

Section 12.04 Committee Membership.

Chairmen shall appoint the members of their committees, except as otherwise provided in the Bylaws or the Standing Rules. Committee members shall serve the same length of time as the Chairman, unless replaced by the Chairman. Standing or ad hoc committees may vary in size as determined by the constituting authority or, in the absence of such determination, by the chairman. The President shall be an ex-officio member of all committees except the Nominating Committee.

Section 12.05 Committee

The Benefits Committee shall consist of the State President, President-Elect, Immediate past President, Secretary, Treasurer, State Director, a member of the FREA Council of past Presidents and the FREA Executive Director. This committee’s purpose is to ensure that quality benefits are offered when making recommendations regarding businesses seeking endorsements to sell products and/or services to FREA members. The FREA Board of Directors must approve endorsement recommendations given by the Benefits Committee. Local units shall engage presentations by representatives of only endorsed businesses without promoting conflicts of interest with non-endorsed business.

ARTICLE XIII

FREA ASSISTANT DISTRICT DIRECTORS AND COORDINATORS.

Section 13.01 Appointment of FREA Assistant District Directors.

The District Director may, with the approval of the State President, appoint an Assistant District Director to assist the District Director in carrying out the work of the District.

Section 13.02 Appointment of Coordinators.

The FREA District Director may, with the approval of the State President, appoint a Coordinator for each county in his/her District where there is no local Unit.

ARTICLE XIV

STANDING RULES.

Section 14.01 Adoption and Changes in Procedural Matters.

The Board of Directors may from time to time adopt, change, or rescind Standing Rules for procedural matters. These Standing Rules cannot be in conflict with these Bylaws. They shall be published in the Handbook or the FREA Bulletin.

ARTICLE XV

AMENDMENTS.

Section 15.01 Proposals.

Any member, affiliated unit, or other committee or group of the Association, having any recommendation for changes in the Articles of Incorporation or in these Bylaws, may submit the recommendation for changes in writing to the President, with a copy to the Chair of the Bylaws Committee.

Section 15.02 Review.

The Bylaws of the Florida Retired Educators Association shall be reviewed for change at least every two (2) years.

Section 15.03 Appropriate Action.

Upon the recommendation of the Board of Directors, the proposed amendment shall be printed in the pre-Convention FREA Bulletin and be presented to the Delegate Convention for delegate action. A two-thirds (2/3) affirmative vote of the delegates present and voting shall be required for adoption.

ARTICLE XVI

Section 16.01. Dissolution of the Association

Section A. State Organization: In the event of the dissolution of FREA or a unit within FREA, such dissolution shall be carried out in accordance with the incorporation statutes of the State of Florida by which this state organization was chartered.

Section B. Unit: (1) When a unit is preparing to dissolve, the FREA President, the District Director, and the Executive Director will be notified. (2) Careful consideration shall be given to the manner in which those members desiring to maintain membership in FREA are advised on how to do so, and the ability to transfer to other units. (3) Any remaining assets in the unit treasury, after all bills have been paid, shall be sent to FREA. (4) The most recent copy of Unit Articles and By-Laws shall be sent to the FREA office and made available if a unit wants to reactivate. (5) The charter must be returned to the state organization (FREA).

ARTICLE XVII

PARLIAMENTARY AUTHORITY.

Section 17.01 Parliamentary Authority.

The rules contained in the current edition of Robert's Rules of Order Newly Revised shall govern in all cases to which they are applicable and in which they are not inconsistent with the Articles of Incorporation and with these Bylaws and any special rules of order the Association may adopt.

These Bylaws were adopted by the Delegate Convention on September 9, 1983. Bylaws were amended by the Delegate Convention on: September 6, 1985, September 9, 1987, September 5, 1990, September 9, 1993, September 7, 1994, June 2, 1996, May 21, 1997, May 20, 1999, May 29, 2002, May 26, 2004, May 26, 2005, May 30, 2007, May 29, 2008, May 27, 2010, May 2019, and May 25, 2021. They have been edited to make all articles and sections agree with the actions taken by the Delegate Convention.

of the
FLORIDA RETIRED EDUCATORS ASSOCIATION

I. AUTHORITY

In accordance with the authority granted in Article XIV of the Bylaws, "STANDING RULES," the Board of Directors hereby adopts and establishes the following Standing Rules for procedural matters of the Association. All previous actions in conflict with these Standing Rules are hereby rescinded.

II. FISCAL PROCEDURES

A. Preparation of the Budget

1. The Budget Committee shall prepare a tentative budget which shall include an estimate from all definite sources and expected expenditures. The Executive Committee shall serve as the Budget Committee.

2. Estimates of income from sources shall be conservative. Estimates of expenditures shall be within what is reasonably expected to be needed.

3. A proposed budget for the ensuing year shall be prepared by the Budget Committee in time for consideration by the Board of Directors prior to the Convention. The Board's recommendation for the budget, including annual dues, shall be presented to the Delegate Convention for its consideration and adoption.

4. Any proposed increase in annual dues shall be published in the pre-Convention FREA Bulletin.

B. Responsibility for Expenditures

1. Officers and Chair of state committees shall be responsible for expenditures, from the items in the budget, designated to cover expenses of activities for which they are responsible. Allowable expenses include postage, long-distance telephone calls, and mileage for required travel at $.45 cents per mile, and food. When lodging is necessary, half of the cost of the room shall be paid by the board member. Allowable expenditures incurred for requested participation in any budgeted program will be charged to that program - other expenses related to the performance of responsibilities of their office shall be charged to their own budget.

2. The Executive Committee is authorized by Article V, Section 5.06, of the Bylaws to approve expenditures in excess of the budgeted items and charge the overage to the account. Expenditures not appearing in the budget when approved at the Delegates Convention, but necessary for special programs or ad hoc committees may be approved and funded by the Executive Committee through transfer of funds from the contingency account.

C. Reserve Fund

A reserve fund of at least 5% of the annual budget shall be set aside and placed in a secure account paying the highest interest available. Expenditures from this fund shall be made only under unusual circumstances and only with the authorization of the Board of Directors. The Executive Committee is authorized to approve expenditures from this fund during the interim period between Board of Directors meetings as part of their responsibility defined in Article VIII Section 8.02 Duties of the FREA Bylaws. The President shall appoint an ad hoc Investment Committee to recommend where and how FREA funds should be invested for the best benefit to the FREA.

D. Florida Retired Educators Foundation, Inc.

1. The Association has established a Foundation for the purpose of receiving and administering contributions, memorials, gifts, bequests, and grants. The disbursement of these funds is outlined in the Bylaws of the Foundation. An annual financial status report shall be submitted to the FREA Board of Directors.

2. The Foundation shall be governed by a Board composed of ten (10) Trustees, one (1) from each District, the FREA President (ex-officio), and the FREF Treasurer. These Trustees are to be nominated by the FREA Nominating Committee with one (1) person nominated from each District. Trustees are elected for staggered terms of three (3) years by their respective delegates at the Delegate Convention of FREA. A person who is appointed or elected to complete the unexpired term of a Trustee shall be eligible to serve two (2) full terms, should he/she choose to run, be nominated and subsequently elected.

3. Upon the death of any present or former state officer or Chair of a standing committee, a contribution of fifty ($50.00) is to be made from FREA to the Florida Retired Educators Foundation, and the family of the deceased is to be notified of this action.

4. The Trustee term shall be for three (3) years.

A. In case a vacancy arises on the Board of Trustees, the Director of the District and/or the FREF Chair in which the vacancy occurs shall recommend to the Chair of the FREF Board of Trustees the name of any possible replacement. The FREF Executive Committee shall appoint a successor to fill the vacancy until the next Delegate Convention, at which time a new Trustee will be elected.

III. NOMINATIONS AND ELECTION OF OFFICERS AND DIRECTORS

A. References

References are made to Article IX of the Bylaws: "NOMINATIONS, ELECTIONS, TERMS OF OFFICE, AND VACANCIES."

B. Nominations

1. The Nominating Committee, in cooperation with the District Directors, Committee Chairs, Unit Presidents and members, shall establish a file of potential candidates for elected positions in FREA.

2. Upon the decision of the Nominating Committee to consider a person as a candidate for a particular position, the potential candidate shall be contacted and his or her permission sought for such candidacy, and he or she will be asked to submit a biographical sketch and photograph for use in apprising delegates of his or her qualifications.

3. The names of the candidates, as presented by the nominating committee, with offices for which they are running, together with biographical sketches, shall be announced in the issue of the FREA Bulletin published just prior to the date of the Delegate Convention.

4. The Nominating Committee shall submit the names of no more than two candidates for the positions of President-Elect, District Directors and FREF Trustees at the time of the election of officers.

C. Election

1. Since the Bylaws permit nominations from the floor, this shall be allowed at the first business session, and voting, if necessary, shall be opened following this session and closed before the last session.

2. Voting for officers shall be by registered delegates at the Delegate Convention. Voting for District Directors and FREF Trustees shall be by Districts. Only registered delegates from a District shall be eligible to vote for candidates running from that District.

3. Tie votes shall be decided by lot.

4. A person appointed to complete the unexpired term of the President or President-Elect shall be eligible, if nominated and elected, to serve one (1) full term.

5. A person appointed to complete the unexpired term of a District Director shall be eligible, if nominated and elected, to serve two (2) full terms.

6. The President shall appoint an Ad Hoc Elections Committee to prepare and count the written ballots.

IV. Delegate Convention

1. A planning committee, under the direction of the President and Convention Coordinator, shall be responsible for developing the program for the Delegate Convention.

2. The President shall be responsible for deciding on the time and place of the Delegate Convention.

3. FREA membership date for determining the number of delegates to the Delegate Convention to which each local unit is entitled shall be by January 31st before the Convention.

V. MEMBERSHIP

1. The Membership Chair shall exercise leadership in the program to retain members and to secure new ones.

2. Distribution of FREA membership lists for public use is strictly forbidden.

VI. HANDBOOK

1. The FREA Handbooks are to be updated annually following election of new officers.

2. Distribution of the Handbook is to be as follows: one (1) copy to each member of the Board of Directors; all Chair of State Committees; County Coordinators; Unit Presidents; and FREF Trustees.

VII. FREA BULLETIN

The FREA Bulletin shall be the principal medium of the Association for keeping members up-to-date on the operations and activities of the Association along with electronic social media, e-mail, and website; and shall be under the duties of the Executive Director, as approved by the governing board of FREA.

VIII. COMMUNICATIONS

1. When a communication of general concern is sent out to Units and/or District Directors, a copy should be sent to the President.

2. Copies of the minutes of the Executive Committee meetings, the Board of Directors meetings, and the Delegates Convention meetings shall be sent to each member of the Board of Directors and standing committee Chair within a reasonable time.

IX. EMPLOYMENT OF PERSONNEL

The Executive Committee is authorized to employ the Executive Director and all other personnel provided for in the budget upon the recommendation of the Executive Director.

X. SUPERVISION AND MANAGEMENT OF THE FREA STATE OFFICE

1. The Executive Committee will report its plan of operation for the state office annually to the Board of Directors when they convene at the time of the Delegate Convention. This plan will include the titles of personnel employed and the operating schedule of the state office for the coming year.

2. The Executive Director is responsible for the management of the activities of the FREA office and shall make adjustments in activities as may be necessary from time to time for the efficient operation of the office.

3. The Executive Director is responsible for the supervision of employees and their work assignments in the daily operation of the office.

XI. PREPARATION OF FORMS, QUESTIONNAIRES, ETC.

1. When information is requested from officers and members, every effort shall be made to make the request clear and precise. Requests must be dated and should give specific dates of when answers are needed. Care must be taken by all persons requesting information that there is no duplication of requests.

2. The request must show where and to whom the communication is to be sent.
