Nancy Meyer Publisher/President

HOUSTON★CHRONICLE

Nancy A. Meyer was named President of the Houston Chronicle in December 2021.

Prior, she spent five years in South Florida, most recently as the President of the Miami Herald and previously General Manager of the Sun Sentinel Media Group, Fort Lauderdale, Fla. and the Orlando Sentinel, Orlando, Fla.

Under Meyer's leadership, The Sun Sentinel was awarded the prestigious 2019 Pulitzer Prize for Public Service for its impactful coverage of the mass shooting at the Marjory Stoneman Douglas High School in Parkland, Fla.

Prior to returning to Florida, she spearheaded a significant operational and digital transformation at the New Jersey Media Group, part of the USA Today Network that included The Record, NorthJersey.com, the Herald News, (201) Magazine and a portfolio of more than 30 community publications.

Formerly, she held roles as Publisher and CEO of the Orlando Sentinel Media Group, Orlando, Fla. and the Hartford Courant, Hartford, Conn. In 2015, the Orlando Sentinel was awarded A "Top Ten That Do It Right" by Editor and Publisher.

Previously, she was the Chief Revenue Officer of Advertising at CT1 Media, which included the Hartford Courant and WTIC-TV (Fox CT). While in this position, Nancy led the integration of the newspaper and television station advertising and digital operations, unlike any other in the country. She was promoted to that role from her former position as Director of Advertising and Strategy for the San Francisco Chronicle.

She speaks frequently to community and professional groups regarding the media industry, women in leadership and the transformation of traditional media to the digital platform.

Nancy is passionate about her involvement in the communities where she serves and has been active with many professional, industry and community organizations. She is currently a member of the Community Foundation of Broward, Florida Press Association, The Alliance of Greater Fort Lauderdale Board of Directors, Miami-Dade Beacon Council, President – The Miami Herald Charities and the Broward Workshop. She is a cancer survivor and has worked extensively with Susan G. Komen.

Meyer attended the University of Hartford in Hartford, Conn., majoring in Communication Studies. In addition, she has professional certificates from Northwestern University, Medill School of Journalism – NMC, and the American Press Institute for Advertising Leadership.

Who We Are

The Greater Houston LGBT Chamber of Commerce is the leading voice for the Greater Houston LGBTQ+ and Allied Business Community. The Chamber is the only organization focused on the LGBTQ+ and Allied Business Community and economic inclusion for the LGBTQ+ community in the greater Houston region.

Ensuring representation for the LGBTQ+ business community and working toward economic inclusion in the fourth largest (and most diverse!) city and in the greater Houston region are key drivers for the mission of the Chamber.

The overarching work of the Chamber is focused on economic empowerment for the LGBTQ+ community.

The Chamber focuses on supporting and growing a thriving LGBTQ+ and Allied business and professional community to create economic opportunities for the LGBTQ+ community.

Simply put, the Chamber works to achieve equality and equity through business. We are a powerful force for business advocacy and a valuable resource for our members and the LGBTQ+ community.

Since the launch of the organization, the Chamber has experienced rapid growth within the greater Houston business community.
