Chamber-Member Spotlight: Re:Solutions Mediation

Melanie Kempton, M.Ed. is a Divorce Mediator and owner of Re:Solutions Mediation, LLC which is housed inside the Erie County Chamber of Commerce building in Suite One. She holds a B.F.A. and an M.Ed. from Bowling Green State University and a post-graduate certificate in Divorce Mediation from Northwestern University. She has completed all the necessary training through the Supreme Court of Ohio to be a Divorce & Family Mediator in Ohio. Her passion is to help couples and families with children avoid the high emotional and financial costs of a divorce court battle. Her mission is to help couples resolve issues concerning custody, parenting time schedules, child/spousal support, and equitable property/debt division in a dignified, respectful, economical and efficient manner. She helps couples craft creative divorce settlement agreements so they can file for a peaceful dissolution. Her website is www.resolutionsmediation.net

Support small businesses. Complete the census.

The 2020 Census will provide data to small businesses that is essential to help them grow and succeed. This data can help businesses better understand how to serve their customers, where to open new locations, and where to find a skilled workforce. Respond to the 2020 Census online, by phone, or by mail for a complete and accurate census.

Census data helps inform future business decisions on things like: Expansions and closures, Hiring strategies, Products to offer, Targeting your consumer base, and Engaging your environment and community.

TOWN MONEY SAVER®

American Labor History - Baseball Hall of Fame

Thursday, January 23rd at 3:30pm at Parkvue

Hardball & Handshakes: Even in an era of free agency and million-dollar agreements, baseball is more than money. Beyond the big salaries is a complex process of finding common ground individually and institutionally. As players and management organized themselves, the transition of our National Pastime from a social sport to a professional industry provides a unique lesson in free enterprise through the evolution of contracts and commerce
