Spike Driving Contest

Rules/Regulations

Saturday, August 7, 2021

1:00 p.m.

Story St. & 10th St.

The Spike Driving Contest is a physically strenuous event. Individuals with back or heart conditions, or those on medication may not participate. You must be 18 years of age to participate.

RULES & REGULATIONS

PLEASE READ CAREFULLY AND SIGN THE WAIVER

- Three spikes will be set by the Judges. Rail will be used and the spikes will be driven through a tie plate.
- This is a two-part timed event. The first part is spike driving. The second part is spike pulling.
- The participants will be timed for driving three spikes. When the spikes are driven, the clock will be stopped.
- The participant will then be given a claw bar and a brief rest period. The clock will be restarted and timing will be resumed for pulling the three spikes.
- The collective times of driving and pulling the spikes will determine the winner of the event.
- There will be two categories of participating, professional and amateur. Awards will be given to the first three places in each category. Amateur status means that a participant may not ever have worked for a railroad in the capacity of track personnel.
