FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Kittitas County Chamber of Commerce Communications Manager Accepts New Role

ELLENSBURG, WA – October 11, 2021 - Emily Masseth will be shifting out of her position as the Communications Manager as of Friday, October 15, 2021. Over the last month, Masseth has been working with the Kittitas County Chamber of Commerce team to develop a seamless transition plan for the Communications Department and Chamber as a whole.

Masseth accepted a full-time position as a Communications Consultant with the Washington State Parks and Recreation Commission. She will continue to live in Ellensburg, Washington and support the Chamber through volunteering and attending events.

“Since my time at the Kittitas County Chamber of Commerce, I have grown so much as a person and as a public relations professional,” said Masseth. “Heading into the next steps of my career, I am confident the Kittitas County Chamber of Commerce will continue to connect, grow, promote and advocate for all of the businesses and organizations in Kittitas County.”
