One of Dublin's most popular and well-known hostelries is Jameson's Bow Street Distillery. And this is a home which extends a very warm welcome to visitors by offering a true Dublin Pub atmosphere and experience. A fascinating, fully guided experience, the Guinness Storehouse Tour explores the history with the emphasis on the visual, like fine art, but rather a small and intimate one. Focusing on architecture, town planning and the centuries of imagination and inspiration.

A graceful Georgian showcase? A vibrant 21st century tech hub? Dublin is all of these – and so much more besides. So get ready for the very many surprises that Ireland's capital is waiting to spring on you…
